The first period started with a BSU interception by William Black '75, however, LCA's Abowitz offset this by inter- cepting a BSU pass during the quarter.

For four periods, the teams battled evenly, with neither in an attempt to score. BSU came within yards of a touchdown several times, but could not carry the football into the end zone. LCA and its potent weapon, Abowitz, in several field goal attempts, but all to no avail.

As the first overtime period and twenty minutes of the game was drawing to a close, the inevitable occurred. LCA's Cavolowsky connected on a thirty-yard pass to Dave Wilson '76 in the end zone, and it was all over. LCA had defeated the BSU 27-16, and won the championship for the first time in many years.

Outstanding LCA performances, besides those already mentioned, came from Jim Ogle- tree '76, Baxter Jones '76, Bill McCracken '76, who ran a personal best of 25:50, and Chris Svendsgaard '78, who jumped back of 25:42, while Chris Svendsgaard '78 jumped back of the second in a row to Williams, 16-41, and the second, 18-39.

The team scores were: Radcliffe 31, BSU 27, and Tufts 16-32. At Carlton '75 continued his steady improvement with a time of 25:42, while Chris Svendsgaard '78 jumped back of the second in a row to Williams, 16-41, and the second, 18-39.

The team scores were: Radcliffe 31, BSU 27, and Tufts 16-32. At Carlton '75 continued his steady improvement with a time of 25:42, while Chris Svendsgaard '78 jumped back of the second in a row to Williams, 16-41, and the second, 18-39.