The strength of SAE among the fraternities and Baker House, which placed all of its entries in the finals, among the dors was evident, yet everyone seemed to enjoy the regatta which, at its present rate of growth, may perbeautifull Du crew in third.

The first Intermediate Eight to cross the line was PBE, with a time of 3:35. They were pressed duous merit by winning the Senior/Intermediate petite final.

The SAE crew jumped immediately into the lead and was never threatened. They rowed very well together and slowly increased their lead down the course.

The above boat, with Dick Michel '75 at stroke, was one of the numerous entries in the Mixed Fours competition in last Saturday's very successful Class Day regatta.
