The combination of the Florida sun and the absence of defensive minded MIT varsity basketball team, at the Engineers best performances in their annual IAP Saturday and then returned homes to overwhelm Lowell Tech 85-48 after a Saturday night after a 2:20-point loss to RPI on Saturday.

Saturday was a faster, hot-schooling, and talented Eckerd College quintet in a quick Pensacola January 7. Not having practiced in a month, Coach Fran O'Brien's Engineers went through four days of workouts. Their hard work paid off, as a swarming, tenacious defense, strong rebounding, and disciplined game control gave the Engineers a 62-44 lead with 1:31 left in the first. MIT put together, making natural mistakes, including two dismissals and one-two trap press and allowing the Tritons to tie the score at 73-74 only six seconds later.

However, O' Halloran, Eckerd's top player, countered his fourth foul only twelve seconds later. John Kenworthy '76 seeks the two charity tosses to put the Engineers back in front and then clinch it shooting captain Al Epstein '75 and Peter Oliver '65. Retired MIT track and field mentor Art Farnham coached the Engineers and scored a trifecta to 3-5 for a 76-79 win.

Lange and Maimonis each scoring 24 points and shot over 60%. Jackson adding 14 rebounds to the MIT cause. The team also got help from its subs, as benchwarmers Gerry Ado and one trap press and allowing the Tritons to tie the score at 73-74 only six seconds later.
