Police Blotter

The first 15 people each day for a week* who bring this ad will be given a $130 reduction on the hifi system shown here. [Or a comparable system.]

Come in early this week and you can get a system that includes a Concord CR 200 am/fm stereo receiver with plenty of clean power, noise-free reception, and ample control facilities. The Ohm E loudspeakers featured are high-efficiency two-way systems with sophisticated crossover networks for low phase distortion and exceptional overall musical accuracy. An: the Glenburn 2110-A automatic turntable has a cueing lever, anti-skate adjustment and a precision low-mass tonearm. It comes fully assembled with a handsome gold-plated base, dustcover, and a Shure magnetic cartridge.

Even through this special offer, Tech Hifi's fourteen important customer satisfaction guarantees are included in the sale price.

List: $430
Hurry & Pay only: $300

*Offer expires Feb. 29th

Concord
Glenburn

Come hear

The Historic OLD V. LNA SHUL
16 Phillips St., Boston
invites the Jewish students to our Traditional Orthodox Services.
FRIDAY: Sundown
SABBATH: 9am

KENS PUB
CENTRAL SQUARE
Serving a Complete Lunch and Dinner Menu
Cambridge's best Sunday Brunch 12 noon - 5pm
684 Mass. Avenue
Ample Parking 868-5640

The Campus Patrol was notified that a family had moved into a room in the Student Center. The patrolmen encountered a woman and three children who claimed that they had been barred from their home by an irate husband. The patrolmen offered the aid of the local police to work with the husband who agreed to reconsider the matter and allowed the recent castaways to reenter their domicile.

2/11/75
1:30am - the Patrol received a complaint of an unwelcome visitor at one of the fraternity houses located in Boston. The Patrol was informed by the visitor that he was a resident of a halfway house for alcoholics located in the immediate vicinity. The jovial visitor was informed that he was in the wrong location and was driven to the right one with a warning of immediate prosecution upon repetition of his appearance.

2/9/75
The Campus Patrol was notified that a family had moved into a room in the Student Center. The patrolmen encountered a woman and three children who claimed that they had been barred from their home by an irate husband. The patrolmen arranged for a meeting with the husband who agreed to reconsider the matter and allowed the recent castaways to reenter their domicile.

During the year of 1974 the Campus Patrol reported that the number of ambulance runs amounted to 1,175. The Patrol now has three members of their unit undergoing special training as an Emergency Medical Technicians and two other members will start the program this week. The Patrol is also attempting to procure the services of an EMT instructor who will be able to assist members to fulfill the requirements for the ambulance duties.

Police Blotter is a weekly compilation of Campus Patrol Activities on and off the MIT campus. Items for the Blotter are selected by the Patrol.