NOTES

* The Activities Development Board is presently receiving applications for capital equipment funding for student and community activities until Monday, May 13. Applications may be secured from Dean Boldt's office in Room 7-101. This will be the last call for applications this term.

* The Junior Executive is working on the planning of Future's first film, which will be on flying. For more information, please call (617) 227-5625.

* The Creative Photography Gallery will hold an exhibition of recent photographs by Harry Callahan. The gallery is located in the Biophysics Center, and in Department of Psych. Physics.

* The sign up list for the Student Project Lab (Course 6.163) for the current term must be picked up in the Registrar's Office, E19-335. The last call for applications this term will be on Friday, May 12. All applications and descriptions of subjects will be available for release in the Registrar's Office, or in room 4-405.

* More than 300 Vietnamese students in this country are on the American-sponsored Agency for International Development grants, and won't be eligible for the S.I.G. Simons is proposing. The annual cost of the program, he said, would probably be less than the $6.5 million which the legislation asked be appropriated.

* Moshe Safdie, Montreal architect and a leading figure in modern architecture, will be featured in an evening of music on Saturday, May 17. Safdie's compositions for the program will be performed by the Harvard Wind Ensemble and the Harvard Glee Club. The program will also include works by other contemporary composers.

* “Souled Out to Jesus,” a feature length documentary film, will be shown at 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday, May 7, in Sanders Theatre, Cambridge, MA. The film chronicles the lives of a group of young Christians who have dedicated themselves to serving the poor and needy in America.

* The Department of Nutrition and Food Science will hold its “Fourth Symposium on Undergraduate Research in Nutrition and Food Science” on Thursday at 5:30 p.m. in the Student Center West Lounge, and 5:00 p.m. in the Chapel.

* A teach-in on the issue of U.S. involvement in Southeast Asia will be held on May 8th.

Vietnamese students: will they return home?

The Trek. The grants would last until the student completed whatever degree program he is currently enrolled in.

“The bill is essentially the same thing as was done for Chinese students when China fell, or for Cubans when Castro took power,” Cissell explained. “But I don’t think any of those bills ran into the opposition this has met.”

Simons’ office has received “such really nasty mail” in opposition to HR-6120, Cissell said. “I don’t mind all ‘You aren’t doing anything for American students, so why help the Indochinese?’” he said.

Cissell said that about 200 of the 3300 Vietnamese students in this country are on American-sponsored Agency for International Development grants, and won’t be eligible for the S.I.G. Simons is proposing. The annual cost of the program, he said, would probably be less than the $6.5 million which the legislation asked be appropriated.

Cissell refused to assess the chances of the bill’s passage. The House of Representatives voted down one bill for aid for refuspective holyday services for Ascension Thursday, May 8, at 8am in the Chapel, 12:30pm in the Student Center West Lounge, and 5:00pm in the Chapel.

Registration material for the 1975 Summer Session is available at the Registrar’s Office, E19-335. The registration forms must be filled in and returned to the Registrar’s Office by tomorrow.
