Boston voters consider mayor, 2 other races

Council, or trying to. He is the only non-returning incumbent.

City Councilor members are Gerald O'Leary, Lawrence DeCara, Louise Day Hicks (nationally known anti-busing activist, former mayoral candidate, and former U.S. Representative), and Frederick Langone. Accesible applicants are former TV reporter Jack Cole, anti-busing

State Rep, Ray Flynn, and Frank Carney, the only son of famed ex-mayor Francis Carney.

Busking School Committee members looking yet another ter are John McDonough, Paul

Tierney, Paul Ellison and Karaene Sullivan.

Notable among School Committee hopefuls is anti-busing leader Evelyn "Pixie" Palladino, who might at least be applauded for her ingenuity. Palladino sidestepped a state election law requiring the reporting of all contributions of $15 or more by selling almost 500 campaign support tickets at $14.95 apiece.

The Program of the week isn't on TV.

It's in the Air Force

ROTC.

Look into Air Force ROTC. And there are 4-year, 3-year, or 2-year programs to choose from. Whichever you select, you'll leave college with a commission as an Air Force officer. With opportunities for a position with responsibility... challenge... and, of course, financial rewards and security.

The courses themselves prepare you for leadership positions ahead.

Positions as a member of an aircrew...or as a missile launch officer... positions using mathematics...sciences... engineering.

Look out for yourself. Look into the AirForceROTC programs on campus.

Put it all together in Air Force ROTC.
