Calculus and drill stolen.

A portable calculator and a hand drill, together valued at about $75, were reported stolen from the workbench of a busy and often unlocked shop in Building 30.

Cars vandalized.

Two vehicles parked overnight Monday in the West Garage were reported to have been vandalized by unknown persons in the early morning hours in apparent attempts to steal them.

Room burglarized.

A student's unlocked room in the Number Six Club was entered by an unknown person on the weekend, who removed from it a camera and lens, and other items, the total value of which was approximately $400. The student had closed, but not locked, the door in question.

Tape recorder theft.

A valuable tape recorder was recovered in the bed of an open truck parked near 77 Mass. Ave. apparently left by the person who had stolen it.

Bicycle stolen.

A 10 speed bicycle valued at $150 was stolen from the front of the Studebaker Center area, where it had been left secured by a lock and chain.

Wallet stolen.

An unlocked room in Bayley Hall was entered by an unknown person, who from it removed a wallet containing $75 cash and assorted personal papers. The thief took place while the student victim slept in an adjoining room.

Valuables stolen.

A Nickerson camera lens, prescription drugs and some business papers were stolen along with the briefcase in which they had been locked when the case was left in the courtroom of the Faculty Club on Thursday. A nearby suitecase was searched, as well, but nothing was recovered from it. Meanwhile a hand calculator and an airline ticket were recovered from still a third case left at the Club.
