I.

Adrian Rich, winner of the 1974 National Book Award will give a reading of her poetry Sunday, Oct. 26, at 8pm in Sanders Theatre, Harvard University, to benefit The Second Wave a newsletter of the new feminism. $1.00 donation requested.

II.

* Rep. Robert Dittman (D-Mass.) will speak on "The Montreal Citizens' Lectures" at 8pm in Sanders Theatre, Wednesday, Oct. 22, 1975. The newly designed Art Gallery on the 7th floor will be on display through Nov. 2.

III.

The selected student works will be on exhibition through Dec. 20. The Visual Arts, 885 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, will feature The First Annual MFA Creative Writing Exhibition, Oct. 29 at 7:30pm in the Bush Room 10-105. The panel of judges will include Mr. Alden Lewis, a fiction writer and former student of the MFA program, and Professor of Modern History, Geoffrey Barraclough, Chichele Professor of Modern History, Emeritus, at Oxford. The panel will be comprised of judges from the MFA program, the Harvard University Press, and the Harvard Law School Art Gallery. The exhibition will feature works by over 50 students selected from the MFA program.

IV.

* Register Now! Matching Roommates Inc., 5 years serving the public.

V.

Registering in a Roommate Terminals Service is a free service for students.

VI.

* 1976 Engineering Graduates

Talk With XEROX TUESDAY, NOV. 4

See your Placement Office to arrange an informative meeting with the Xerox representative on campus.

You will hear about the exciting thrust that is being developed by Xerox in the following areas:

- Product design and engineering
- Sales and marketing
- Research and development
- Finance and accounting
- Administration
- Personnel

XEROX

An equal opportunity employer (male/female)