(The Police Blotter is a report written by the Campus Patrol on crimes that occur on or around the MIT campus each week.)

A young man was accosted by two thieves attempting to steal a motor vehicle. In response to his orders to them to get out of the car and keep their hands in sight, one of the pair bolted and ran towards Memorial Drive. The other suddenly pulled from his belt a 45 caliber automatic, and other immediately followed him. While the man was running, his weapon was fired, hitting him in the leg. He was immediately taken to a hospital where his condition was reported to be stable.

The suspect was later identified as a known criminal, and charges were filed against him. The investigation is ongoing, and additional suspects may be identified as further information becomes available.

1 The idea of consolidating the co-op programs has been considered off and on for the past few years. In a school-wide meeting last May, the Committee on Curricula and the Academic Dean discussed the possibility of consolidating the co-op programs in order to avoid any further delay.

2 Tucker agreed that the combined co-op program could represent a better view to an administrative personnel. As one junior 6-A student put it, "I like it much better than the outside company, which would rather deal with a single office. It will also ensure that the instructions are followed properly."

3 The only potential problem is that the program is scheduled to go into effect for the next academic year, and the new program is not expected to be fully implemented until the following year.

4 The Salesians of St. John Bosco were founded in 1859 to serve young men. Unlike other orders whose apostolate has changed with varying conditions, the Salesians are always there for young people, youth oriented, and from this year, youth oriented. Today we're helping to prepare young men for the world that awaits them tomorrow. Not an easy task but one which we welcome.

5 And how do we go about it? By following the precepts of our founder, Don Bosco, To work with young men with reason, religion and kindness with a method of play, learn and pray. We're trying to build better communities by helping to create better men. As a Salesian, you are guaranteed the chance to achieve your aims.
