LCA to appeal IFC smoot ruling

By Mike McNaught

Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity (LCA) plans to appeal the decision of the Interfraternity Council to remove Fiji from the fraternity hall, The Tech has learned.

The president of John Cavolsoky of 76 said the house has voted to take the Jucdorn to the MTT to fine LCA back to the group and ask for a re-hearing of the case. Cavolsoky refused to state the grounds for the appeal, saying, "We'll take that up with Judcorm when we contact them."

According to Cavolsoky, appealing a Judcorm decision to the same body is "the usual thing for the IFC." IFC procedure calls for appointing two new investigators, naming two new members to Judcorm, and holding a re-hearing on the case.

Judcorm fined LCA $500 Dec. 11 after a hearing on the Oct. 24 incident in which three Fiji freshmen caught painting over LCA's "smoot marks" on the Harvard Bridge were taken to the LCA house and subjected to "extreme" treatment by LCA members. A statement released by Judcorm after the hearing called the LCA actions "irresponsible and detrimental to the MIT fraternity system."

Asked if LCA would pay the fine, due May 1, if its appeal is still under consideration, Cavolsoky replied, "You figure that out."

In addition to fining LCA $500, the maximum fine Judcorm can impose, the group proposed Fiji to restore the smoot marks to their original condition by May 1.

Do you have the capability of being a SUPERPROGRAMMER

Are you impatient, intolerant and pig-headed? Do you annoy people by being right all the time? Does sloppy, complex code drive you up the wall?

Maybe you have all these qualities and don't annoy people much. Then again, maybe you are told that you are difficult to deal with. Either way, if you are as good as you think you are, we want you.

We at National CSS are developing a packet-switched network and a timesharing computer system. We will be recruiting on campus on February 8th. If you are interested in operating system development, you should check with the Career Planning and Placement office for more details.

You don't have to be obnoxious to work for us - We would rather you weren't - But you do have to be a.wful d... good.

NOTICIAS DE CUERO TRAVEL TIPS TO MEXICO

With vacation time fast approaching, many of you will no doubt be traveling to Mexico. Some of you might even be coming back. Here are some helpful hints.

1. A man on a burro always has the right of way, unless he appears to be deliberately blocking.

2. In local cantinas, pouring a shot of Cuervo down a man's collar is not thought to be humorous.

3. Failing onto a cactus, even an actual Cuervo cactus, can be a sticky proposition.

4. It is tough to find hamburger rolls in the smaller towns; it's best to bring your own.
