Roundup

Cagers, women fencers win

By Glenn Brownstein, Dave Dobos, and Jeanneke Wing

Cougars' cross-squad victories have been few and far between, so successful weekend (3-10) last few years. Come-from behind defeats have been much more prevalent, so the game's final four minutes to nip Clark, 78-75, and snap a four game losing streak.

Freshman Tom Berman's two free throws with 0:14 left in the contest proved to be the game winners and put MIT ahead for the first time in ten minutes.

Peter Jackson scored 27 points and pulled down nine rebounds to lead the Engineers, who face Nichols tonight at 8pm

in the Cage.

Junior Rich Okine's second place in the high hurdles led the indoor track (6-1-1) squad to 11th in the Greater Bostons last weekend. Okine won his pre liminary and semifinal heats in 5:9, but couldn't catch BU's Tom Mahan in the final.

g-captain Mick Ryan '76 sped to a fourth in the 600 yard dash in 1:14.5 and Jeff Baerman '76 continued his string of excellent races, finishing in 4:13.6 for fourth place. Barry

Gus '79 shattered the fresh man two mile record with a finishing 9:36.2.

To round out the MIT scoring, the two mile relay team of Jask Reaves '77, Baerman, and Joe Yan '77 earned a third place with a time of 8:07.2, just four seconds off the MIT record.

The women's fencing team (1-1) added another convincing victory Saturday by outscoring Holy Cross. Co-captain Angela Chaney '76 fenced superbly, only receiving one touch against her in winning both her bouts. Judy Austin '77 and Jeanneke Wing '78 each defeated two of three opponents to make the final score 6-3. The fencers next Redcliffe at home Thursday night. Men's fencing (7-3) routed Holy Cross, 21-3.

Wrestling (8-3) defeated Williams 35-32 but lost to powerful IMAGINE, 28-14, at powerful

Williams, Mass. Mort
dougan '79 (118) and Joe Scire

77 (142) both wrestled well in winning both matches, while 6'4" 33-pound Brian van

Lith de Jonge '76 picked up a mile of fortune. The grapplers took Talts and Boston State at MIT Saturday.

Although somewhat over matched, women's swimming (1-2) performed well in losing to Holy Cross and Boston College. Senior

Susan '78 captured the 50 and 100 yard backstroke events against Holy Cross, and Peggy Page '78 and co-captain

Wendy Irving '77 also won one event each against the Crusaders.

January saw the debut of pocket billiards as an intramural sport at MIT. The Institute pool tournament drew a total of 12 teams and some 75 individuals into the competition. Both individual and team championships were awarded, each team consisting of five players. Matches were held at the participating living groups with the finals taking place at the Student Center.

Phi Beta Epsilon won the dual meet championship with a squad of Sean O'Connor '76, Steve Schmid '77, Bill Rittenhouse '78, Steve Jones '78, and Mike Hagerty '77 by defeating Alpha Epsilon Pi 4-1 in the finals. O'Connor took the individual honors, defeating runner-up Schmid 75-42 in the title game.

I rank Fuller '77 (left) attempts to return a shot at MIT's 4 again win over Fordham Saturday.
