Alchemist: noteworthy

A supporting cast featuring Andrew Piecka '72 as Sir Epicure Mammon included a host of perfect victims. Piecka held the theatre spellbound for minutes with a monologue on the lecherous pleasures he expected to derive from Subtle's promised "Philosopher's Stone," and Philip Buchan '79, in the character of Dapper, will be remembered as "straight man" in a practical joke (and costume's triumph) of massive proportions: the appearance of Doll and Subtle as the Queen of Fairy and her attendant. John Triant 78's fine-breathing Demon Annas was no small contribution to the evening's entertainment. Superb quality of production completed the package to make the 1976 IAP production by far the most entertaining Institute credit of the academic year.
