Humanities, and first Prize in a scholarly/critical nature in the Humanities Department announces an The Writing Program of the Humanities Prize, and the Bolt Manuscript Prize. Ellen King Prize for Freshman Writing, and listen to other MIT people work, and listen to other MIT people read their writing. Referrals in 14E-310 at 4:30. For more information call x7894.

* The Department of Humanities is offering three prizes for writing: The Ellen King Prize for Freshman Writing, the Robert A. Best Writing Prize, and the Bolt Humanities Prize. Copies of the rules are available in 44E-304. Entries must be in by April 16.

* The Physics Department will hold an Open House for freshmen and sophomores interested in learning more about the opportunities in physics for a major and/or a career on Monday, April 5, from 4 to 7pm in the Massasoit Lounge, 37-322. Several faculty members will give talks about current research in the department. Department faculty and students will be on hand to chat with students and to answer questions about course requirements and options for physics majors, and career opportunities. Referrals will be served.

* The Physics Department will hold an Open House for freshmen and sophomores interested in learning more about the opportunities in physics for a major and/or a career on Monday, April 5, from 4 to 7pm in the Massasoit Lounge, 37-322. Several faculty members will give talks about current research in the department. Department faculty and students will be on hand to chat with students and to answer questions about course requirements and options for physics majors, and career opportunities. Referrals will be served.

* The Information Processing Center will offer the following short courses during April: Introduction to Simscript ($10.00) - April 5, 7, 9, 12, 14; Elements of Multics ($10.00) - April 6, 8, 11, 15, 20, 22; Improving Program Efficiency - April 21; Preengineer with Lynn Pansey, 20-47, x6520.

* The Department of Humanities is offering three prizes for writing: The Ellen King Prize for Freshman Writing, the Robert A. Best Writing Prize, and the Bolt Humanities Prize. Copies of the rules are available in 44E-409. Entries must be in by April 16.

* The Physics Department will hold an Open House for freshmen and sophomores interested in learning more about the opportunities in physics for a major and/or a career on Monday, April 5, from 4 to 7pm in the Massasoit Lounge, 37-322. Several faculty members will give talks about current research in the department. Department faculty and students will be on hand to chat with students and to answer questions about course requirements and options for physics majors, and career opportunities. Referrals will be served.

* For less, call x3-3680 (Finance Board Office).

Finance Board Elections

Wed. Mar. 31 in W2-400 8:30pm

For more info, call x3-3680 (Finance Board Office)