Bostock leads in Big Screw Contest

By Henry Fiorentini

With the deadline fast for the '75-'76 Institute Screw Competition fast approaching, 8:02 course administrator Judy Bostock has a "slight lead" over her second place in terms of money collected. Wayne Anderson, Chairman of the Committee on Visual Arts, which is responsible for the planning and carrying out of "Transparent Horizons," Anderson has refused the nomination.

The winter will be awarded a three-foot, left-handed aluminum screw. The $60.00 rotating trophy will be awarded at Wellesley this Sunday at 3pm to the person with the highest cash total. Until a few years ago, each yearly winner was presented with a permanent trophy of his/her own. However, since all proceeds go towards the winner's favorite charity, the trophy is given a new owner each year in order to reduce overhead.

Alptra Phil Omega has collected about $210.00 so far according to contest director Hassan Alam, and it is hoped that a $350.00-400.00 sum will be collected before the contest ends Saturday at 5pm.

Last year's contest was won by Dean Thomas Hill of the Sloan School of Management. Last year's total was about $150.00.

Collections will continue today from 9 to 5 in the Lobby of Building 10, and tomorrow from 9 to 3 in front of the Student Center.

The initiation ceremony, for East Bost, will take place at 9:30pm on Sunday, May 2 in the Mayo Lounge (375-252). The banquet for pledges will be at the Aquarion Restaurant that evening. Members are urged to attend. Dress appropriately.
