* The Department of Humanities announces three new subjects in its curriculum for the fall term, pending approval by the Committee on Curriculum. For further information contact the Humanities Office (1401-40; x-3444) or the instructor in charge.

21-127 Major English Novels Tues. & Thurs. 1:30-2:30

409, x3-44411) or the instructor in charge.

* Transcripts with Summer Session 1976 included will be available at the Registrar's Office the week of September 27.

* The Registry of Motor Vehicles is now accepting applications for stickers for motorized cycles. Applications for stickers, accompanied by a $3 fee, may be submitted at the Boston Office of the Registry of Motor Vehicles or at any of the 34 District Offices throughout the State. Operators must at least 16 years old and have a valid driver's license or learner's permit. They are subject to the traffic laws and regulations of the Commonwealth, and hand signals are required.

* The MIT Gospel Choir will have its first rehearsal this Saturday, Sept. 18, at 1:30 p.m. The meeting will be held in Building W16, Rehearsal Room B.

* A symposium sponsored by UROP and the Society of Sigma Xi will be held in Room 26-100 at 1 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 18. Featured will be David Krantum on "Revised Agreements - The Organization of Executive Women in Business and the Professions." A bachelor of science degree in business administration for graduate work in aerospace related science and engineering is being offered by Zonta International, a service organization of executive women in business and the professions. A selection of 40 prints by Jonathan Green will be sponsored by the Committee on the Visual Arts and will be open every day.

* If you are an undergraduate with experience in Writing Program courses and are interested in working this term as a Teaching Assistant in a Writing Program course, contact the Program in 14L-310, x-7894.

* The Zuma Chapter of Boston at BU, Hill, New England's leading professional women's chapter, will hold auditions for its 1976-77 season through Oct. 12. The chorus, conducted by Joshua Jacobson, features Mendelssohn's "Elgar." All qualified singers are encouraged to audition. Call 926-2167 for an appointment.

* The Cambridge Montessori School, Inc. will offer adult education courses in such varied areas as painting, drawing, auto repair, yoga, poetry and Native American history starting the week of Sept. 20. For further information, call Ed Weston at Cambridge Montessori School, 161 Garden Street, Cambridge, 492-3412.

* Made up of women ages 18-25 from 15 countries, the YWCA residence is an experiment in responsible and communal living. In addition to normal day, breakfast, and dinner Monday through Friday, residency carries with its full stage of YWCA facilities, including gym and pool. All rooms are singles with community baths. For more information call 491-6690.

* The Dramashop hold its first major event of the 1976-77 season in the Little Theatre, Kresge Auditorium, at 7:30 p.m., Thursday. There will be entertainment — five rows of seats, followed by refreshments.

* If you or your children Sept. 20 or 21 only.

10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

No Obligation

We want to introduce you to the new Barkey developing service that produces beautiful textured borderless prints. A Berkey photo consultant will be on hand to take your 3½" x 5" color portrait, absolutely free!