Sailors win President's Trophy

By Chris Donnelly

The MIT sailors performed well in several regattas last weekend. The women won their first event of the season, the President's Trophy, while the men finished fourth in the Lane Trophy, third in the Jack Wood Trophy, and second in a Dinghy Invitation at MIT.

The women topped five schools, including Radcliffe and Tufts, in the President's Trophy at BU. Both Barbara Beth '77 (A) and Deborah Meyer '79 (B) were low-point skippers in their divisions. The two skippers handled the moderate northerly winds well, turning in identical finishes of two firsts, two seconds, a third, and a fourth in the six races. Sally Hussted '78 placed second overall, four points behind Stonehill. Barbra Zbranek '79 and Beth Bloome '78 were low-point skippers in their division. The MIT skippers included Bill Critch '77, Elliot Rosen '79, Ryan, Len Dolber '79, Bruce Gage '79, Jim Newman '78, John York '80, and Chuck Irwin '80.

A dinghy invitation was also sailed at BU on Sunday. Troubled by light winds from the Boston shore, Chris Donnelly '77, John Stahr '78, Eric Greene '79, and Bates McKee '79 managed a fourth place.

Due to the dedication of the recently renovated sailing pavilion tomorrow, the men have a light schedule this weekend. They will face the top schools on the Atlantic Coast in the Danmark Trophy at Coast Guard.
