Linda Ronstadt appeared in a spectacular concert at the Music Hall Monday night, coinciding with the release of her Greatest Hits album.

The Hockey club continued its winning ways Saturday with an easy 6-2 victory over Cozumel. Kevin Dopart '79 and Rich Bryant '79 combined for four goals in four minutes to ice the win.

The process of dormitory rate increases was discussed in the Coed Residents Committee. According to Ken Skier, this week's discussions are "still preliminary" and put off-campus residence beyond the summer. One resident commented that dormitory crowding is a major problem.

The MIT volleyball team's bid to reach the final double-elimination bracket of the National Championships in California was thwarted Wednesday night by Colorado State, 7-7, 19-16, 12-15. MIT, which had come back to top-seeded Texas Lutheran 3-1, 15-13, 15-11, faced Keaneey State of Nevada, which completed the first round-robin pool competition. Complete details will appear in next Tuesday's issue.
