Richardson paces track

By Dave Dehne

Senior co-captain Frank Richardson broke the overall MIT varsity record in the two-mile run in Saturday's Eastern Collegiate Indoor Track Championships at Tufts University at Medford. The three-time All-American tied a second place finish behind Providence's John Tracy. Richardson was timed in 8:54.4, topping the mark of Ben Wilson '70 set in 1974. Richardson's performance confirms the fact that he is MIT's best distance runner ever. "He did better than we ever expected," asserted head coach Gordon Kelly. Leaping 6'-5", high jumper Richard von Berdt '78, the only other MIT athlete to lead the beavers wound up third overall.

In non-placing efforts, senior John Lundberg '78 cleared in the two-mile run in Saturday's Eastern Collegiate Indoor Track Championships at Tufts University at Medford.
