phony high-class atmosphere rowed, Restaurants striving for a prospects are considerably nar-come. For a woman who bears no resemblance to Cybill Shepard or tables is one job that provides an hard it is to get a job these days, practices. Everyone knows how criminatory hiring and firing restaurants to continue their dis-

permission to college-area

last sentence of Koretz's remark about the physical ap-feature with characteristic unto tradition by starting off a new your beef' Then go to Newbury's and that a Director not be appointed N_ Sivir

Our evaluation of the Writing students for competent help with change does not come about by ought to be ignored.

article in institutional Humanities and Social Science vigorating. and we know that it as mutually exclusive. I would be strongest responses. The commit- dual department or school. I an the hard questions in the hope of in the program rather than a:

as an administrator is that he asks ducted only in terms of work with

One of Don Blackmer's strengths staff evaluations should be con of Dean Blackmer as "an outspoken foe of the Program." If planned, however, without delay' plump. or dark need not apply.

restaurant strike by waitresses.

reason for at least one local if they do not allow customers to the "resti.e" Pact nations would choose to defend their borders

most reports assume). they might

reliable since they have no prior equilibrium. and some of the Pact was referring to, but as a student of defense policy, the NATO situation, and Soviet defense policy I felt I can correct some of my misperceptions and false assumptions.

But while it is true in terms of manpower the Warsaw Pact and in general that some of the Pact nations are unstable, at this point the analysis breaks down. For economic reasons Britain is reducing its contributions to NATO, in Denmark there is a strong move towards disarmament, and the French are not too

reliable since they have no prior commitment to the defense of W.

Germans and given a surprise attack with decisive early results (as most reports assume), they might

choose to defend their borders

their nuclear deterrent force

Mr. Spisak also assumes that the "rescue" Pact nations would need to be garrisoned, when in reality most of them are and none would cause trouble if Soviet troops were pulling back. NATO decisively. Mr. Spisak also correctly points out that NATO logistics are greatly superior to those of the Pact, but Soviet doctrine calls for a quick breakthrough and pursuit into the rear areas so as to threw the rear echelons (logistics, reserves, etc.) into disar-

on the side of caution!

Michael C. Lynch. Feb. 21, '77

CATHOLIC-PROTESTANT LENTEN PRAYER SERVICE Scripture reading, reflection and prayer Mondays of Lent MIT Chapel 5pm-5:30pm Begins Monday, Feb. 28.

Sponsored by Tech Catholic Community, Lutheran and Episcopal Chaplains

HUGHES
HUGHES AIRCRAFT COMPANY

CATHOLIC-PROTESTANT LENTEN PRAYER SERVICE Scripture reading, reflection and prayer Mondays of Lent MIT Chapel 5pm-5:30pm Begins Monday, Feb. 28.

Sponsored by Tech Catholic Community, Lutheran and Episcopal Chaplains

HUGHES
HUGHES AIRCRAFT COMPANY

CATHOLIC-PROTESTANT LENTEN PRAYER SERVICE Scripture reading, reflection and prayer Mondays of Lent MIT Chapel 5pm-5:30pm Begins Monday, Feb. 28.

Sponsored by Tech Catholic Community, Lutheran and Episcopal Chaplains

HUGHES
HUGHES AIRCRAFT COMPANY

CATHOLIC-PROTESTANT LENTEN PRAYER SERVICE Scripture reading, reflection and prayer Mondays of Lent MIT Chapel 5pm-5:30pm Begins Monday, Feb. 28.

Sponsored by Tech Catholic Community, Lutheran and Episcopal Chaplains

HUGHES
HUGHES AIRCRAFT COMPANY

CATHOLIC-PROTESTANT LENTEN PRAYER SERVICE Scripture reading, reflection and prayer Mondays of Lent MIT Chapel 5pm-5:30pm Begins Monday, Feb. 28.

Sponsored by Tech Catholic Community, Lutheran and Episcopal Chaplains

HUGHES
HUGHES AIRCRAFT COMPANY