Officers Capture Suspect in Boston

Acting on the reported presence of a suspicious person in the East Cambridge area, responding officers from the MIT, Cambridge Police, and the Boston Police Department arrived on the scene. A check with the Probation Office revealed three outstanding warrants in the suspect's name. The officers conducted an intensive search of the area, including searching the suspect's room, and were able to locate and arrest the individual.

Burglary at Wood

A first-floor resident of the Wood dormitory awoke at 7:30am on Wednesday morning to find a stranger stealing her belongings. The student was able to stop the man and run towards Main Street. The student later found $100 cash missing from her room, apparently taken by the same man.

Mustang Stolen from Drive

A 1966 Ford Mustang was stolen from its parking place on Memorial Drive in front of Baker House sometime between 6pm Monday and 10:30am Wednesday of this week.

Bike Stolen at Student Center

A Raleigh 10-speed bicycle secured to a rack outside the Student Center by a cable and lock was reportedly stolen last Wednesday afternoon.

Corvette Taken from Alley

One car was abandoned and another stolen from the intersection of Endicott Street and Amherst Alley early Wednesday morning. The "stolen" vehicle — unbeknownst to its owner — had been stolen earlier in the day in Boston. The newly taken car, the property of an MIT student, was a rust colored 1968 Corvette.
