"No seconds" Commons plans introduced

By Mitch Trachtenberg

In an effort to increase the utilization of MIT's food service facilities, the Dining Service will introduce a new single-serving facility, the Dining Service, which will utilize MIT's food service throughout last spring between discussions which took place among those who pre-

"Our aim is to break even. But our goals are set 18 months ahead... you really can't know too much about what is going to happen."
