World

Amin in coma — Ugandan President Idi Amin was apparently in a coma yesterday after a lengthy illness. Amin has been moved by helicopter to a special hospital on Lake Victoria.

Chinese honor Mao — Observers are now being held in Peking to honor the first anniversary of the death of Chairman Mao Tse-Tung. Participants are expected to view the leader's body, which is enclosed in a crystal case inside a newly-constructed memorial hall.

Nation

Carter asks for Lance hearing — President Carter has asked the Senate to hold a hearing to investigate charges against Budget Director Bert Lance. The Comptroller of the Currency told Senate investigators that his report cleared Lance of charges that he violated the law, but left open the question of whether the Senate investigators that his report cleared Lance of charges that the Senate body which is enclosed in a "crystal case inside a newly-constructed memorial hall.

Justice brief opposes race quote — A Justice Department brief in the controversial Baka case supports the position that it is unconstitutional for a university to set aside a fixed number of places in each class for minority applicants. The brief also contends, however, that less rigid systems that consider an applicant's race among other factors are constitutional and should be encouraged.

Mostel dead at 62 — Zero Mostel, the star of Fiddler on the Roof yesterday in New York, died of throat cancer yesterday. He was 62.

Cuomo and Koch lead in NYC — Mario Cuomo led the New York City Democratic mayoral primary with Edward Koch close behind, with 71 percent of the precincts reporting last night. Mayor Abraham Beame apparently has been eliminated, a runoff between Cuomo and Koch is expected, since neither garnered the required 40 percent of the vote.

Traffic crackdown successful — Boston Police stopped 291 motorists within three hours after the start of a crackdown on traffic violations. The purpose of the campaign is to reduce speeding, reckless driving and intersection violations such as disregarding stop signs and red lights.

Sports

Connors wins — Jimmy Connors defeated Manuel Orantes in straight sets in quarter-final action at the US Open tennis tournament in Forest Hills, NY. In women's play Wendy Turnbull defeated Wimbledon champion Virginia Wade, also in straight sets.

The Tech

The Tech is published twice a week during the semester; one issue during vacation and one during the last week of July. Please send all correspondence to P.O. Box 29, MIT Branch, Cambridge, MA 02139. Offices at Room W20-453, 84 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, MA. Telephone: (617) 253-1541. Advertising. circulation and operating rates available on request.

MIT Choral Society

John Oliver, Conductor
Open rehearsals & auditions for this season's first concert:

Verdi Requiem

Monday & Thursday, Sept. 12 & 15 7:30 pm Rm. 10-250

All MIT community members invited

The Bus

Beginning a week from tomorrow.

Sponsored by DonnCor

Available the week of September 26.

Help wanted! see page 2

Register for:

STUDENT ART ASSOC.
Fall classes in Drawing, Photography, Ceramics, Calligraphy, Stained Glass
3-7019
100 5-600
Student Center
Rm. 406
Classes start Sept. 19

The Harlequin Theatre Co.
Boston Arts Group
present
C. Neill
Alice
Sam. 12-16-77
277 Massachusetts Ave.
Cambridge, MA
787-7050

New Course
Second Year Spanish

21.268 Spanish II
MTRF 12-1 14E-304
4-0-3 (pending CoC approval)
J.W. Harms

Carpet & sales

Remnants

Rya Rugs

The MIT Chess Club is sponsoring two tournament tournaments over the weekend of October 24-25. Both have low entry fees ($2 or $3, of which all will be returned as prizes). Prize will be awarded. USCF membership is required (available at the door or bring your card). Registration for both tournaments is at 820 pm on Sunday. For more information call Louis at x5-6453. The first tournament is a two-day, 4 round Swiss. The second tournament is a two-day, one round Swiss. Both will be held in the Student Lounge of the Student Center.

The Zamir Choral of Boston, New York’s leading professional Hebrew Chorus, will hold auditions for its six-month season Sept. 6-8. The Chorale is conducted by Joseph Jacobson, performs Biblical, Israeli, and Jewish music and will feature Randall Thompson’s “Beaming Kingdom.” All qualified singers are encouraged to audition. Call 926-9667 for an appointment.

A summer sale to benefit the Boston Big Project! All funds will be held on Sat., Sept. 17, from 2-4 p.m. in the Old Cambridge Baptist Church — 1011 Mass. Ave., near Harvard Square. All and all donations welcome — please call 495-9251. (Closing rain date, Sun., Sept. 18, 1-5 p.m.)

Official Notice: Transcripts with summer session 1977 included will be available from Sept. 26, the last week of July. Please send all correspondence to P.O. Box 29.

Traffic crackdown successful — Boston Police stopped 291 motorists within three hours after the start of a crackdown on traffic violations. The purpose of the campaign is to reduce speeding, reckless driving and intersection violations such as disregarding stop signs and red lights.

The MIT Chess Club is sponsoring two tournament tournaments over the weekend of October 24-25. Both have low entry fees ($2 or $3, of which all will be returned as prizes). Prize will be awarded. USCF membership is required (available at the door or bring your card). Registration for both tournaments is at 820 pm on Sunday. For more information call Louis at x5-6453. The first tournament is a two-day, 4 round Swiss. The second tournament is a two-day, one round Swiss. Both will be held in the Student Lounge of the Student Center.

The Zamir Choral of Boston, New York’s leading professional Hebrew Chorus, will hold auditions for its six-month season Sept. 6-8. The Chorale is conducted by Joseph Jacobson, performs Biblical, Israeli, and Jewish music and will feature Randall Thompson’s “Beaming Kingdom.” All qualified singers are encouraged to audition. Call 926-9667 for an appointment.

A summer sale to benefit the Boston Big Project! All funds will be held on Sat., Sept. 17, from 2-4 p.m. in the Old Cambridge Baptist Church — 1011 Mass. Ave., near Harvard Square. All and all donations welcome — please call 495-9251. (Closing rain date, Sun., Sept. 18, 1-5 p.m.)

Official Notice: Transcripts with summer session 1977 included will be available from Sept. 26, the last week of July. Please send all correspondence to P.O. Box 29.