Auto Theft Thwarted

A Bldg. 26 Bldg. member stepped inside Vassar St. Saturday afternoon to discover three men in the act of trying to steal his 1977 Pontiac. They had opened the car by smashing the left rear window and were trying to "pop" the ignition when the owner appeared. When the "hooligans" spotted the owner's approach both he and the "grahman" jumped into a red car driven by a third accomplice; the trio fled in the direction of Kendall Square.
