Sailors outstanding, win Greater Bostons

By Audrey Greenhill

The 50th weekend of the sailing team gave its best performance of the season by winning the 10th Annual Cup race and placing second in two other open regattas. Saturday, MIT hosted the Greater Boston Championship, traditionally seven Boston schools compete in these divisions. The competitions were on Lake and two Tech courses. A good constant breeze prevailed throughout the regatta. Ten boats were won at the Lake and one Tech division by MIT. The MIT team placed third in the Greater Boston championship. In Saturday's regatta, the New England in a field of 40 America's Cup, MIT placed third behind Dartmouth and Penn. Coach John Miller says that MIT's only college crew was placed third behind Dartmouth, the men's team's fourth. The Philadelphia Club placed fourth in the event. The MIT team placed third behind Dartmouth, the men's team's fourth. The Philadelphia Club placed fourth in the event. The MIT team placed third behind Dartmouth, the men's team's fourth. The Philadelphia Club placed fourth in the event. The MIT team placed third behind Dartmouth, the men's team's fourth. The Philadelphia Club placed fourth in the event. The MIT team placed third behind Dartmouth, the men's team's fourth. The Philadelphia Club placed fourth in the event. The MIT team placed third behind Dartmouth, the men's team's fourth. The Philadelphia Club placed fourth in the event. The MIT team placed third behind Dartmouth, the men's team's fourth. The Philadelphia Club placed fourth in the event. The MIT team placed third behind Dartmouth, the men's team's fourth. The Philadelphia Club placed fourth in the event. The MIT team placed third behind Dartmouth, the men's team's fourth. The Philadelphia Club placed fourth in the event. The MIT team placed third behind Dartmouth, the men's team's fourth. The Philadelphia Club placed fourth in the event. The MIT team placed third behind Dartmouth, the men's team's fourth. The Philadelphia Club placed fourth in the event. The MI...