Seal killings defended — A delegation of Canadians con- tended in New York Monday that the annual harp seal hunt was conducted humanely. The Canadians asserted that the hunt was an economic necessity, and that the clubbing of seal pups, whose pelts are then removed while many of the seals are still alive, was the most humane method of killing possible.

Nation
Obscenity charges filed — The United States Supreme Court has agreed to view a case dealing with the use of obscenities on a local radio station in New York. Complainants were lodged with the Federal Communications Commission after WBAI-FM broadcast a George Carlin album where seven words dealing McGovern chose White in '72 — Senator George McGovern recently revealed that he wanted Mayor Kevin White of Boston to be his running mate in the 1972 presidential election. Opposition by Senator Edward Kennedy and the Massachusetts conventi- on delegation caused McGovern to withdraw his offer to White.

MOVIES
Close Encounters of the Third Kind — Science fiction/fantasy movie seems to be finally coming into its own. Close Encounters has been called everything from a mystical experience to enjoyable fantasy with a bit too much UFO. However, in either case, it is a good science fiction film, certainly among the best ten or so ever filmed. Cinema 57.

The World's Greatest Lover — A Gene Wilder comedy which has its moments but just isn't too memorable. Nevertheless, it's still amusing while you're watching it. P. Alley.

Looking for Mr. Goodbar — Starring Diane Keaton. Charles.

LSC
THX-1138 — George Lucas, director of Star Wars and American Graffiti first film about a future society where love is the ultimate crime. Wednesday, 7 & 9:30, in 26-100.

Love and Death — Woody Allen, the incompetent and cowardly soldier, sets out to assassinate Napoleon on Diane Keaton's urging. The results produce one of his funnier films. Friday, 7 & 9:30, in 26-101.

The Golden Gun — A typical James Bond movie except that it stars Roger Moore who has neither the style nor the acting ability which Sean Connery brought to the role. Saturday, 7 & 9:30, in 26-101.

AROUND MIT
Love's Labours Lost — Shakespeare Ensemble. A good production of one of Shakespeare's least known comedies. Jan. 12-14, 8pm, in the Salz. The Elderly Duo — The pianists, Beatrice Edich and the violinist, Stephen Edich, give a show at Krege at 8pm Friday which is reputed to be excellent. They will do Sonatas by Mozart — Gordon Hall
