World

LSD producers sentenced — The producers and distributors of half the free world's LSD were sentenced to jail terms in Bristol, England. The seventeen people were responsible for producing $4 million worth of the drug and 95% of England's supply.

Nation

Marston inquiry deepens — An inquiry by the Senate Judiciary Committee into the dismissal of David Marston, United States Attorney in Philadelphia, will be broadened. The Senate Committee decided to ask the Justice Department for documents which will clarify politics dealing with Rep. Joshua Eilberg (D-Penn.), Attorney General Griffin Bell, and perhaps President Carter.

Miller heads Fed — G. William Miller was sworn in as chairman of the Federal Reserve Board by Chief Justice Warren Burger. Arthur Burns, who had held that important post for eight years, was passed over for the position by President Carter.

Campus

MIT professor to head NASA's Lewis Lab — Professor John McCarthy Jr. of MIT's Aeronautics and Astronautics Department is to become the director of NASA's Lewis Research Center in Cleveland, Ohio. McCarthy has been the director of the Center for Space Research at MIT since 1974 and professor since 1971.

Service, not service charges.

Good service isn't something you should have to pay for. So when you buy our, apartment, or any insurance from us, there's no service charge tacked on.

World Blotter

Swimmer Victimized

A student who fell asleep on a couch in Bldg. 24 awoke several hours later to find that someone had stolen his parka, valued at $80, from the nearby table where he had left it.

Boat Stolen

A blue canoe valued at $50 was stolen from the Student Center second floor lounge on Tuesday. It was left on a chair in the lounge for just a few minutes by an individual who discovered it missing upon his return.

Spectacle Stolen

An IBM typewriter valued at $400 was left open in the lounge for just a few minutes by an individual who discovered it missing upon his return.

Three proposals given to faculty

(Continued from page 1)

i.e., they are subject to discussion and possible revisions at faculty meetings before an actual vote is taken. He said he hopes that student-faculty interaction on the matter will result in a "just the right way to present the proposals to the faculty."

Gretyak also expressed hope that students read the proposals as presented in the committee reports. The committee will try to "respond as closely as possible" to student input, he said.

Drew Freitz '79, the committee's student representative, said he would favor an amendment along with the report which would modify the proposed addition of grade distributions to transcript. Next week's faculty meeting will be "readily discussion," he said.

Monday March 13

Rescheduled from March 6

Nomcom Hearings for

Libraries Committee (7:00pm)

Wellesley-MIT Committee (7:30pm)

IAP Policy Committee (8:00pm)

Room 400 Student Center

ATTENTION SENIORS IN ENGINEERING, SCIENCE, MATHEMATICS!

The United States Air Force has technical job openings for career minded individuals.

Contact Captain Harry Cook at the Placement Office, March 13, 9 AM to 5 PM.