By Jim Van Doren

The Charles River was packed with crews from six schools, some of them the best in their leagues, to compete with the Tech crews this past Saturday.

A strong Tech lightweight crew, coming off a solid victory over Yale last weekend, fell just short of a victory over Harvard, only to have the Harvard Varsity 1, stroke and captain, Dan Ehrenfried '80; 5, Doug Bors '79; 6, Carl Hampf '78; 7, George Blossom '79; stroke and captain, Dan Ehrenfried '80; 5, Doug Bors

This group Was IM Weightlifting two years ago. Others are cross

This spring. The brainchild of Eric Sollee, the coach of men's and several long

the-alley shots and well-placed overhead smashers. The at-match at first doubles. After

'79 played a very exciting three set

situation.

Manniya and Drobac wrapped out to the starting point. The race against Trinity's very good matches will be held in the even-possible. Contact Gary Gammon at Team registrations for in-

by Charles W. Ferris, C.S.B.

in picture. Interested students should call Vic Paglia or Ma

NEW ENGLAND WOMEN'S SERVICE
A QUALITY, LICENSED MEDICAL FACILITY
ABORTION, BIRTH CONTROL, GYNECOLOGY, FREE PREGNANCY TESTS & COUNSELING
HOURS: MON.-FRI., 9 A.M.-5 P.M.
738-1370
1031 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, MA

TUESDAY, APRIL 25, 1978 THE TECH PAGE 7

sports cont.

Strong lightweight crew nipped by Harvard

By Helen Miyakawa

Average 3-3, the MIT men's tennis team won 5-4 last week against the University of Ver-

Among those not previously stated.

Fencing tournament

intraural 'mini-season'

by Gordon Haff

For the first time, MIT's intramural program will be featuring fenc-

the process of rebuilding, and has also faced some key injuries.

The men meet Brandeis at home on Monday and Clark on Wednesday. The New Englands begins Thursday with finals on

Yale, Harvard and Dartmouth will be present. MIT hopes to

The men faced better last weekend, narrowly winning their race against Brown and Mt. Holyoke. A 2 second margin was the decision, as the Tech bow rowed past Brown in the final 500

meters. Holy-ke trailed these

crews throughout the race.

A young heavyweight variety

area rivals Northeastern and Boston University, two of the

bigger teams around. The Tech IM

crew led the race for the first 500

meters, but was unable to maintain the pace they had set for themselves as Northeastern and

BU finished ahead of them.

Northeastern won the race by a .7

second margin over BU (.5:03.9 to

.5:04.6) and MIT finished with a time of 5:17.5.

MIT's heavyweight crew is in

Tennis ready for New En gland

By Helen Miyakawa

Average 3-3, the MIT men's tennis team won 5-4 last week against the University of Ver-

Among those not previously stated.

Fencing tournament

intraural 'mini-season'

by Gordon Haff

For the first time, MIT's intramural program will be featuring fenc-

the process of rebuilding, and has also faced some key injuries.

The men meet Brandeis at home on Monday and Clark on Wednesday. The New Englands begins Thursday with finals on

Yale, Harvard and Dartmouth will be present. MIT hopes to

The men faced better last weekend, narrowly winning their race against Brown and Mt. Holyoke. A 2 second margin was the decision, as the Tech bow rowed past Brown in the final 500

meters. Holy-ke trailed these

crews throughout the race.

A young heavyweight variety

area rivals Northeastern and Boston University, two of the

bigger teams around. The Tech IM

crew led the race for the first 500

meters, but was unable to maintain the pace they had set for themselves as Northeastern and

BU finished ahead of them.

Northeastern won the race by a .7

second margin over BU (.5:03.9 to

.5:04.6) and MIT finished with a

time of 5:17.5.

MIT's heavyweight crew is in