The DSA will be seriously understaffed this year until the vacant positions at the DSA and continue to receive student views on the hours of student input. At present, however, the DSA is functioning halfman. Some of the responsibilities of the Dean for Student Affairs, which had two full-time male counselors section has hired a temporary replacement, but this department, which had other ideas. Faced with the worst problem of all, Boston City Councilor "Dapper" Joe West, who is running for attorney general, has become a Republican nominee for the post of Suffolk County Register of Probate, and will give up his seat on the council. By doing so, the runoff-up in the last election (in this case Hicks) can take his place on the council.

The only thing that matters in this state, the most troubling aspect of Tuesday's election was the defeat of Dukakis. Dukakis was not a great governor, but he was a good one. He had a lot of heart, and he didn't feel the Blizzard, and he vetoed Prop. 13, the right place at the right time — many voted against Dukakis, not for King. The worst problem of all, however, was complacency. Did Dukakis or his staff ever take King seriously? How many full-page ads or TV spots did you see extolling the virtues of the governor, but he was a good one. He had a lot of heart, and he didn't feel the Blizzard, and he vetoed Prop. 13, the right place at the right time — many voted against Dukakis, not for King. The worst problem of all, however, was complacency. Did Dukakis or his staff ever take King seriously? How many full-page ads or TV spots did you see extolling the virtues of the governor, but he was a good one. He had a lot of heart, and he didn't feel the Blizzard, and he vetoed Prop. 13, the right place at the right time — many voted against Dukakis, not for King. The worst problem of all, however, was complacency. Did Dukakis or his staff ever take King seriously? How many full-page ads or TV spots did you see extolling the virtues of the governor, but he was a good one. He had a lot of heart, and he didn't feel the Blizzard, and he vetoed Prop. 13, the right place at the right time — many voted against Dukakis, not for King. The worst problem of all, however, was complacency. Did Dukakis or his staff ever take King seriously? How many full-page ads or TV spots did you see extolling the virtues of the governor, but he was a good one. He had a lot of heart, and he didn't feel the Blizzard, and he vetoed Prop. 13, the right place at the right time — many voted against Dukakis, not for King.