Water polo torpedoed

Eric Byler (23) is fouled while releasing the ball in the MIT water polo game against San Francisco State.

Editor's note: Tom Bryant is the coach of the rugby club.

After opening the season with two difficult matches, the MIT Rugby Football Club has shown notable improvements.

The first matches were against Springfield City Rugby Football Club, one of the members of the ten club senior division in New England. In the A-side match, Springfield used superior conditioning and coordination in their forwards to wear down the MIT pack.

White Joel Lederman G, in his first match at A-side hooker, won most of the setts, the pack was being driven backwards as Captain Bob Silverman '80 served the ball to the backs. Much of the team's attack was generated by the foot of Sylfhard Tom Bryant G. On a shanked drop goal attempt by Bryant, John Pytlowski '80 and Ken Murphy '80 jumped on the loose ball in the end goal. Pytlowski was awarded the Club's first try of the season.

In the B-side match, MIT was represented by a scrum of A-side players, a few reserves, and
