To the editor:
The call to hystera has been sounded again.

Once more we are being told about the evils of South Africa. South Africa, they cry, is Repressive. It is run by a Minority. And worst of all, South Africa is, horrors! Racist! And that is the absolute ultimate abomination, making mere political repression seem positively liberal. In other words, South Africa is Bad.

Now we in the United States are Good. Since we are Good, we must not in any way support any government that is seen as Bad. Therefore, if a certain government is Bad, we must not in any way support any corporation that supplies it. Therefore, if a certain government is Bad, we should not in any way support any corporation that supports it. Therefore, if a certain government is Bad, we should not in any way support any corporation that is Bad.

Therefore, if the United States Government is Bad, we must not in any way support any corporation that supports it. Therefore, if the United States Government is Bad, we should not in any way support any corporation that is Bad.
