MIT names diving coach

By Bob Host

Andrea Whitelaw, daughter of Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference (ECAC) commissioner Scotty Whitelaw, has been named coach for both the men’s and women’s swimming teams at MIT. An all-American at the American Collegiate and Intercollegiate Athletics for Women’s championships, she has served as a swimming coach at Western High School since 1976.

MIT will host the New England Team Racing championships tomorrow and Sunday on the Charles. Entered in the regatta are MIT, Harvard, Yale, Brown, Tufts, Boston University, Rhode Island, and the Coast Guard Academy. The top two teams will advance to the Intercollegiate Yacht Racing Association of North America championships next June, which will also be held at MIT.

The club football team travels to Loudounville, NY tomorrow to face Siena College at 11:30am. The Engineers sport a 3-2 record after a 14-3 loss to Fitchburg State last weekend. Siena is 1-4 on the year. Last year, Siena defeated MIT 30-14 in the only home game the Engineers played that season.

Halftime ast John ‘83 continues to lead the team in scoring with 18 points, and is ranking among Division II leaders through the first five games. Bruce Wrobel ‘90 has passed for a 47.6 completion percentage, with 39 completions in 82 attempts, good for 670 yards and three touchdowns. Barry Jordan ‘83 has caught 16 of these for 237 yards and two touchdowns; other top receivers are Greg Herley ‘80 (nine receptions for 125 yards) and Terry Beutel ‘83, with nine receptions and 141 yards.

MIT’s defense has allowed only 11 points per game on the average, but even more interesting is the fact that no team has scored on the Engineers in the first quarter. In addition, Willy Schwartz ‘82, whose brother Dave is the placekicker for Yale, hit MIT’s first field goal ever when he kicked a 28-yarder against Fitchburg last season.

Registration for physical education classes for the second quarter will be held Tuesday, Oct. 30 from 8:30am to 11am in the duPont Gym.

There will be an Intramural Council meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 31 at 7pm in 44-159. Elections in bowling, volleyball, and wrestling will be held. Attendance at the meeting is mandatory. Other matters will be discussed. Milk and doughnuts will be served after the meeting.

There will be only A-league playoffs in IM football. The top two teams from each A-league division will make the playoffs, to be held Nov. 4 and 11. Two-team ties will be broken on the basis of the teams’ game against each other. If more than two teams are tied, the out-of-division game will be dropped from their record and any resulting two-team tie will be broken accordingly. The last resort for any greater-than-twoteam tie is the point spread in games among tied teams.

Also, most rain games have not been rescheduled. Cops of the rain make-up schedule can be picked up in the IM office. Teams that were to supply referees on rain days will supply them on these days.

The IM cross-country meet will be held on Sunday, Nov. 4 at 1:30pm in the Back Bay area of Boston. Individual registration will begin at 12:30pm. Team registration will follow at 1:30pm. Team rosters are due in the IM cross-country manager’s mailbox (W12-131) by 5pm Wednesday, Oct. 31. There will be three- and five-mile races.

An Evening With Champions will be held at Harvard University’s new completed Alexander H. Brught Hockes Center on Friday, Nov. 2 at 8pm and Saturday, Nov. 3 at 1pm and 8pm. Tickets for the two evening performances are $6.50 for adults and $3.50 for students and $3.50 for students. Tickets for the two evening performances are available from the Holyoke State Ticket Office, the Harvard University Athletic Office at 60 Boylston St., and the Boston Sailing Club. Further information can be obtained by calling 498-2402.

There will be five IM football games this weekend. Tufts hosts Amherst at 1pm Saturday, while MIT faces Yale at 4pm on the same day. WPI hosts Wesleyan at 1pm Sunday, while MIT hosts Rensselaer at 4pm on that day.

There will be two IM soccer games this weekend. MIT faces Rensselaer at 1pm Saturday, while the Engineers are at Wesleyan at 4pm on that day.

There will be two IM women’s soccer games this weekend. MIT faces Boston University at 4pm Saturday, while the Engineers are at Rensselaer at 1pm on that day.

There will be two IM volleyball games this weekend. Tufts hosts Wesleyan at 1pm Saturday, while MIT is at Railroad at 4pm on that day.

There will be two IM basketball games this weekend. MIT faces Rensselaer at 1pm Saturday, while the Engineers are at Wesleyan at 4pm on that day.
