The following fellowships are now accepting applications: Dissertation Fellowships: These fellowships are available for women who will have completed all course requirements and examinations for the degree and will not retain permanent resident status. Period of Award: 12 months beginning July 1, 1980; stipends range from $3,500-$7,000. Deadline: Dec. 1, 1979.

Postdoctoral Fellowships: These fellowships are available for women who hold the doctorate at the time of application. Applicants must be United States citizens or hold permanent resident status. Funds may not be used for research equipment, publication costs, travel grants, or tuition for further course work. Awards are made for 12 months beginning July 1, 1980; stipends range from $3,000-$7,000. Deadline: Dec. 15, 1979.

For American Women in Selected Professions: These fellowships assist women in their final year of professional training in the fields of law, dentistry, medicine, veterinary medicine, and architecture. Average awards of $4,000 for one academic year begin in Sept. 1980. Deadline: Dec. 15, 1979.

International Fellowships: Approximately 45 fellowships are awarded for one year's graduate study at a United States institution for women who are citizens of countries other than the United States. Six awards for advanced research in any country other than the fellow's own for women who are members in their own country of National Associations affiliated with the International Federation of University Women are also available. Stipends cover cost of living according to need and place of study and average $2,500-$5,500. In special cases tuition and fees are covered, but not travel costs. Awards are for one year, beginning in Sept. 1980, and are not renewable. Deadline: Dec. 1, 1979.

Further information on the fellowships is available from Dean Jeanne Richard, in the Graduate School Office, room 3-136, x3-4869.
