UAP says students resist plan

Opposite in the question of how they would react to mandatory commons, 6 percent strongly favored the proposal. 5 percent liked it. 13 percent didn't care. 53 percent oppose it, and 23 percent said they would leave the housing system. Eighty percent of the students were strongly opposed to mandatory commons in dormitories with dining halls.

Guaranteed minimum income passes the House — A bill mandating a national minimum welfare payment to poor families narrowly passed in the House of Representatives Wednesday. The measure would increase payments to 800,000 families in thirteen states. The bill is expected to face Senate opposition, especially from Senator Russell Bom (D-La.). Chairman of the Finance Committee.

The senator then answered questions posed to him by a few of the more than 600 members of the press cleared for credentials by the Secret Service. One question at the end of a press conference with John Connally. asked him why he had not been picked up after the shooting of President Kennedy at the Dallas, Texas, Memorial Colosseum.
