The Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory (LASL) is accepting applications for its Graduate Research Assistant Program. Positions are open to graduate students who wish to continue in graduate work in the humanities, and who may be awarded in December of the current year. Application forms should be on file in college offices which deal with federal grants.

*The following fellowships are now accepting applications: Dissertation Fellowships: Approximately 70 fellowships are available for women who have completed all core requirements and examinations for the doctorate except the dissertation. The deadline is Jan. 1, 1980, and those degree will be received by the end of the fellowship year (June 1981). Applicants must be citizens of the United States or hold permanent resident status. Period of Award: 12 months, beginning July 1, 1980; stipends $3,500-$7,000. Deadline: Dec. 15, 1979.

*Postdoctoral Fellowships: For postdoctoral research for women who hold the doctorate at the time of application. Applicants must be United States citizens or hold permanent resident status. Funds may not be used for research equipment, publication costs, or travel costs. Deadline: Dec. 15, 1979.

*For American Women in Selected Professions: These fellowships assist women in their final year of professional training in the fields of law, dentistry, medicine, veterinary medicine, and architecture. Average awards of $5,000 for one academic year beginning in Sept., 1980. Deadline: Dec. 15, 1979.

*International Fellowships: Approximately 45 fellowships are awarded for one year's graduate study at a United States institution for women who are citizens of countries other than the United States. Six awards for advanced research in any country other than the fellow's own for women who are members in their own country of National Associations affiliated with the International Federation of University Women. Stipends cover cost of living according to need and plans, and average $2,500-$5,500. In special cases tuition and fees are covered, but not travel costs. Awards are for one year, beginning in Sept., 1980, and are not renewable. Deadline: Dec. 1, 1979.
