Campus Police. "That's where it originated from," they say.

"That's bad information," one is told by the Campus Police.

"We have nothing to do with Draper, officially." They advise a trip to the Middlesex County Superior Court.

Unfortunately, criminal cases that have already been disposed are closed, and the file of the last remaining arrest defendant in the Ailanthus case was lost.

Money Talks

Part of the money you give the American Cancer Society helps the International Association of Laryngectomists help thousands of people to learn to talk again after their voice boxes have been removed.

Give to the American Cancer Society.

There's a lot more of these around than you might think.

And you don't have to just rely on your local newspaper to find them. Because this spring, Ford's Insider magazine will feature an extensive article on how and where to find summer employment.

There will be information on government jobs, including tips on taking the Civil Service exam. Articles on overseas jobs, too. Intern and co-op programs in private business. Jobs working on the railroad and other outdoor money-makers. Jobs at resorts. Even jobs at Disneyland. And for the individualist, job profiles of a clam digger and a magician.

Ford's Insider will help you find the summer job you need. And to find Insider, all you have to do is pick up a copy of your college paper and look inside. It's free from Ford.

Look for Summer Job Issue of Insider Ford continuing series of college newspaper supplements.
