World
Italy's government falls — the 38th Italian government since World War II collapsed Wednesday in the midst of an upsurge of political terrorism. Prime Minister Francesco Cossiga was forced to resign after the Socialists party reversed its previous policy of abstaining from votes.

Egyptian and Israeli leaders to visit — President Anwar Sadat of Egypt and Prime Minister Menachem Begin of Israel were invited Wednesday to confer separately with President Carter in April. The invitations were made in an effort to restart stalled negotiations over the future of the occupied West Bank and Gaza Strip.

Japan to increase US troop support — According to Japanese and American diplomats, Japan probably will increase its share of support for US forces stationed there. The increase may amount to as much as $200 million over Japan's current support level of $730 million. Japanese Foreign Minister Saburo Okita is expected to work out the details when he visits US officials for two days, beginning today.
