Israel invades southern Lebanon — Israeli armor and infantry units invaded southern Lebanon Wednesday. United Nations observers indicated that the Israelis were fortifying areas about 5 miles from Israel's border. The move was thought to be a reaction to Monday's terroristic attack on a kibbutz.

Violence erupts at Peruvian embassy — Two adults and a child were injured inside the Peruvian embassy compound in Havana on Wednesday by gunfire from Cuban police. The police were attempting to prevent a man from gaining access to the embassy in a stolen taxi. Thousands of Cubans have crowded into the compound, seeking political asylum, since access was permitted last Friday.

NOMINATIONS SOUGHT

Nominations are being sought for the IRWIN SIZER AWARD, es- tablished by the Graduate Student Council in 1975 in honor Irwin Sizer, former Dean of the Graduate School from 1967 to 1975, presently Presi- dent of the Health Science Fund and Consultant to the Resource Development Office. The Award is presented for "the most significant improvement to MIT education", to encourage innovations and excel- lence in MIT academic programs. The recipient of this Award, selected by a committee of the Graduate Student Council in closed session, will receive a plaque and a cash award of $150. Any person or group in the Institute community is eligible, though in any year the Award Committee may decide to give no award.

Nominations may be made by letter, should include references and/or supporting material; and be submitted to the Graduate Student Council Office, Walker Bldg., Room 50-222, no later than April 18, 1980.

Previous Awards have been given to the leaders of the Writing Program (1975), Independent Activities Program (1976), Undergraduate Research Opportunities Program (1977), the Innovation Center at Sloan (1978), and the Office of Minority Education (1979).
