Announcements

Forms to schedule R/O activities are now available from the Undergraduate Academic Support Office, 7-105. Scheduling will start May 15 and will be on a first-come, first-served basis. For more info, call Rhonda Peck at x3-3916.

Junior degree candidates must reply immediately to E19-335 to indicate whether diplomas are to be mailed, called for in person, or presented at the ceremony.

Freshman Evaluation Forms due Wednesday, May 14. Instructor turn-in deadline is Friday, May 23.

Students interested in being associate advisors should stop by the Undergraduate Academic Support Office, 7-101, as soon as possible. Also, if interested in calling incoming freshmen and giving them a personal welcome to the Institute, stop by the UASO.

The UASO is making available to all departments, offices, living groups, and activities copies of the complete updated freshmen list, class of 1984. The lists, available at a cost of $4 in alphabetical or zip code order are for official non-private use only. Orders should be placed in 7-103 before 5pm, May 14.

New England Health Foundations, a holistic health care center in Harvard Square is sponsoring a four-week Mindfulness Therapy Workshop covering relaxation techniques, relieving chronic stress and increasing flexibility. For more information, call 661-6225.

Beginning with the summer session, the charge for use of the Deferred Payment Plan will be $430 as will the charge for each late payment.

Individuals born after August 3, 1945 are eligible to compete in the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists' essay competition on "How to Eliminate the Threat of Nuclear War." There is a $5000 prize and a September 15 deadline. For more information, write The Rabinowitch Essay Competition, Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1020-24 East 58th Street, Chicago, IL 60637.

The Museum School presents two exhibits of student works: Glass, Ceramics and Metals and the First Annual Graphic Design Competition. The gallery is located at 230 The Fenway, Boston.

Earthlight Gallery features the work of Stephen Hinkman, a prominent science fantasy illustrator, April 25-May 24. For information, call 266-8617.

Ann Seidman will speak on United States-Multinational Corporations; Racism and Sexism in South Africa and New England on Monday, May 12, at 5pm in 6-321. The public is invited and refreshments will be served. This event is sponsored by the Racism/Sexism Task Force of the March 4 Coalition at MIT.

The Harvard University School of Government forum program has just released its last lecture series program. For more information on the schedule, listed below, call 495-1360.

May 9—"Afghanistan: Refugees, Politics, and the Media," Dan Rather, CBS News, and others.
May 12—Barry Bosworth, former Director, Council on Wage & Price Stability.

All forums will take place at 8pm at 79 Boylston Street, Cambridge.

Forms to schedule R/O activities are now available from the Undergraduate Academic Support Office, 7-105. Scheduling will start May 15 and will be on a first-come, first-served basis. For more info, call Rhonda Peck at x3-3916.

June degree candidates must reply immediately to E19-335 to indicate whether diplomas are to be mailed, called for in person, or presented at the ceremony.

Freshman Evaluation Forms due Wednesday, May 14. Instructor turn-in deadline is Friday, May 23.

Students interested in being associate advisors should stop by the Undergraduate Academic Support Office, 7-101, as soon as possible. Also, if interested in calling incoming freshmen and giving them a personal welcome to the Institute, stop by the UASO.

The UASO is making available to all departments, offices, living groups, and activities copies of the complete updated freshmen list, class of 1984. The lists, available at a cost of $4 in alphabetical or zip code order are for official non-private use only. Orders should be placed in 7-103 before 5pm, May 14.

New England Health Foundations, a holistic health care center in Harvard Square is sponsoring a four-week Mindfulness Therapy Workshop covering relaxation techniques, relieving chronic stress and increasing flexibility. For more information, call 661-6225.

Beginning with the summer session, the charge for use of the Deferred Payment Plan will be $430 as will the charge for each late payment.

Individuals born after August 3, 1945 are eligible to compete in the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists' essay competition on "How to Eliminate the Threat of Nuclear War." There is a $5000 prize and a September 15 deadline. For more information, write The Rabinowitch Essay Competition, Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1020-24 East 58th Street, Chicago, IL 60637.

The Museum School presents two exhibits of student works: Glass, Ceramics and Metals and the First Annual Graphic Design Competition. The gallery is located at 230 The Fenway, Boston.

Earthlight Gallery features the work of Stephen Hinkman, a prominent science fantasy illustrator, April 25-May 24. For information, call 266-8617.

Ann Seidman will speak on United States-Multinational Corporations; Racism and Sexism in South Africa and New England on Monday, May 12, at 5pm in 6-321. The public is invited and refreshments will be served. This event is sponsored by the Racism/Sexism Task Force of the March 4 Coalition at MIT.

The Harvard University School of Government forum program has just released its last lecture series program. For more information on the schedule, listed below, call 495-1360.

May 9—"Afghanistan: Refugees, Politics, and the Media," Dan Rather, CBS News, and others.
May 12—Barry Bosworth, former Director, Council on Wage & Price Stability.

All forums will take place at 8pm at 79 Boylston Street, Cambridge.

THE TECH PAGE 3

Announcements

Forms to schedule R/O activities are now available from the Undergraduate Academic Support Office, 7-105. Scheduling will start May 15 and will be on a first-come, first-served basis. For more info, call Rhonda Peck at x3-3916.

Junior degree candidates must reply immediately to E19-335 to indicate whether diplomas are to be mailed, called for in person, or presented at the ceremony.

Freshman Evaluation Forms due Wednesday, May 14. Instructor turn-in deadline is Friday, May 23.

Students interested in being associate advisors should stop by the Undergraduate Academic Support Office, 7-101, as soon as possible. Also, if interested in calling incoming freshmen and giving them a personal welcome to the Institute, stop by the UASO.

The UASO is making available to all departments, offices, living groups, and activities copies of the complete updated freshmen list, class of 1984. The lists, available at a cost of $4 in alphabetical or zip code order are for official non-private use only. Orders should be placed in 7-103 before 5pm, May 14.

New England Health Foundations, a holistic health care center in Harvard Square is sponsoring a four-week Mindfulness Therapy Workshop covering relaxation techniques, relieving chronic stress and increasing flexibility. For more information, call 661-6225.

Beginning with the summer session, the charge for use of the Deferred Payment Plan will be $430 as will the charge for each late payment.

Individuals born after August 3, 1945 are eligible to compete in the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists' essay competition on "How to Eliminate the Threat of Nuclear War." There is a $5000 prize and a September 15 deadline. For more information, write The Rabinowitch Essay Competition, Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1020-24 East 58th Street, Chicago, IL 60637.

The Museum School presents two exhibits of student works: Glass, Ceramics and Metals and the First Annual Graphic Design Competition. The gallery is located at 230 The Fenway, Boston.

Earthlight Gallery features the work of Stephen Hinkman, a prominent science fantasy illustrator, April 25-May 24. For information, call 266-8617.

Ann Seidman will speak on United States-Multinational Corporations; Racism and Sexism in South Africa and New England on Monday, May 12, at 5pm in 6-321. The public is invited and refreshments will be served. This event is sponsored by the Racism/Sexism Task Force of the March 4 Coalition at MIT.

The Harvard University School of Government forum program has just released its last lecture series program. For more information on the schedule, listed below, call 495-1360.

May 9—"Afghanistan: Refugees, Politics, and the Media," Dan Rather, CBS News, and others.
May 12—Barry Bosworth, former Director, Council on Wage & Price Stability.

All forums will take place at 8pm at 79 Boylston Street, Cambridge.