Announcements

Youth grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities are available in the form of up to $2,500 for individuals and $10,000 for groups. Interested primarily for students between 15 and 25, the awards are to fund independent work on the humanities. Guidelines and applications may be obtained by writing to Younggrants, Mail Stop 103-C, National Endowment for the Humanities, Washington, D.C., 20506.

The American Friends Service Committee will hold a forum on Iran, the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict, and the US Role on Wednesday, Sept. 10 at 8 pm. at Friends Meeting House, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge. Speakers are Prof. Mary Anderson from the Ramsey Clark delegation to Iran, Palestinian economist Elias Tuma, and vector Mendelssohn of AFSC Middle East panel. For more information, call 661-6180.

1960's activist Jerry Rubin will be speaking at Brandeis University on Tuesday, September 23 at 8 pm. Tickets cost $4, and are available at Ticketron, Out of Town, and Brandeis Student Service Bureau. For more info, call 647-2167.

Mobilization for Survival will be holding its first fall general meeting on Wednesday, Sept. 16 at 7:30pm in room 9-150. The speakers in- will take place Sept. 16 at 7:30pm at the MIT Socialist Group. To graduate in time, you have any questions.

The MIT Women's League invites all international women (especially wives of International Students) to register for English Conversation Classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays (except holidays) during the MIT term. Classes begin at 9:15am, with refreshments served at 11am. The cost is $25 per term, and beginner to advanced instruction is given. Babysitting is available for a small additional fee. Please call dailytimes, 882-8809 or 253-3656, if you have any questions.

This is MIT: an alternative view will take place Sept. 16 at 7:30pm in room 10-340. The speakers include Noam Chomsky speaking on MIT and the current world crisis, Beppe Croczzino talking about the MIT student, and a speaker to be announced who will discuss the alternative view of MIT. Sponsored by the MIT Socialist Group.

The American Friends Service Committee will hold a forum on Iran, the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict, and the US Role on Wednesday, Sept. 10 at 8 pm. at Friends Meeting House, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge. Speakers are Prof. Mary Anderson from the Ramsey Clark delegation to Iran, Palestinian economist Elias Tuma, and vector Mendelssohn of AFSC Middle East panel. For more information, call 661-6180.

1960's activist Jerry Rubin will be speaking at Brandeis University on Tuesday, September 23 at 8 pm. Tickets cost $4, and are available at Ticketron, Out of Town, and Brandeis Student Service Bureau. For more info, call 647-2167.

Mobilization for Survival will be holding its first fall general meeting on Wednesday, Sept. 16 at 7:30pm in room 9-150. The speakers in- will take place Sept. 16 at 7:30pm at the MIT Socialist Group. To graduate in time, you have any questions.

The MIT Women's League invites all international women (especially wives of International Students) to register for English Conversation Classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays (except holidays) during the MIT term. Classes begin at 9:15am, with refreshments served at 11am. The cost is $25 per term, and beginner to advanced instruction is given. Babysitting is available for a small additional fee. Please call dailytimes, 882-8809 or 253-3656, if you have any questions.

This is MIT: an alternative view will take place Sept. 16 at 7:30pm in room 10-340. The speakers include Noam Chomsky speaking on MIT and the current world crisis, Beppe Croczzino talking about the MIT student, and a speaker to be announced who will discuss the alternative view of MIT. Sponsored by the MIT Socialist Group.

The American Friends Service Committee will hold a forum on Iran, the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict, and the US Role on Wednesday, Sept. 10 at 8 pm. at Friends Meeting House, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge. Speakers are Prof. Mary Anderson from the Ramsey Clark delegation to Iran, Palestinian economist Elias Tuma, and vector Mendelssohn of AFSC Middle East panel. For more information, call 661-6180.

1960's activist Jerry Rubin will be speaking at Brandeis University on Tuesday, September 23 at 8 pm. Tickets cost $4, and are available at Ticketron, Out of Town, and Brandeis Student Service Bureau. For more info, call 647-2167.

Mobilization for Survival will be holding its first fall general meeting on Wednesday, Sept. 16 at 7:30pm in room 9-150. The speakers in- will take place Sept. 16 at 7:30pm at the MIT Socialist Group. To graduate in time, you have any questions.

The MIT Women's League invites all international women (especially wives of International Students) to register for English Conversation Classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays (except holidays) during the MIT term. Classes begin at 9:15am, with refreshments served at 11am. The cost is $25 per term, and beginner to advanced instruction is given. Babysitting is available for a small additional fee. Please call dailytimes, 882-8809 or 253-3656, if you have any questions.

This is MIT: an alternative view will take place Sept. 16 at 7:30pm in room 10-340. The speakers include Noam Chomsky speaking on MIT and the current world crisis, Beppe Croczzino talking about the MIT student, and a speaker to be announced who will discuss the alternative view of MIT. Sponsored by the MIT Socialist Group.