Football
The Engineers face Fairfield at 2:30pm tomorrow in Shovebron Stadium in the team's home opener. Coming off a 7-6 win over Fitchburg last Sunday, second-year coach Dwight Smith's squad sports a 1-1 mark for the season. Fairfield defeated MIT last year, 19-2.

Soccer
Still looking for its first win, Walt Alessi's soccer squad (0-4) goes against Bates tomorrow at 3:30pm in Stemberger Stadium. Bates has tied defending national champion Babson already this year, and defeated a tough Brandeis team. MIT has shown improvement in recent contests, most notably a 3-2 loss to Trinity last week.

Weekend Preview

Water Polo
John Benedick's water polo team, sporting a 3-2 record after a 22-8 win over Connecticut Wednesday, faces Hamilton tonight at 6:15 and Army tomorrow at 2pm, both at home as part of the MIT Invitational tournament. Other entrants include Brown, Harvard, Yale, and Fordham. The team currently ranks second in the New England coaches' poll.

Sporting Notices
Intramural backgammon will be offered this fall. Routines will be due by 5pm Wednesday, Oct. 15, in W32-121. All players must have an athletic card. Players with questions should contact Harold Napirot, the IM backgammon manager, at x5-6161.

The intramural tennis tournament will take place at the duPont tennis courts on the weekends of Oct. 15-16 and Oct. 18-19. Entry cards are due at 5pm today in W32-121. The draw, match schedule, and any additional information will be posted by Monday. Oct. 5. Questions can be answered by the tennis manager, Nick Schowes, at x6-4796.

We're The Energy Systems Company.
Helping to develop the world's energy resources. Extracting them, pumping them, conserving them, and cleaning up after them.

At C-E, you're always looking for new sources of energy. Your energy can help.

We've equipped this gas production platform in the Gulf of Mexico with production processing equipment (center). C-E Lummus supplied the proprietary technology for Brazil's largest petrochemical complex (right).

If you'd like to know more about the numerous career opportunities available with The Energy Systems Company, write: Corporate College Relations, Combustion Engineering, Inc., 900 Long Ridge Road, Stamford, Connecticut, USA 06902.

At C-E, we're always looking for new sources of energy. Your energy can help.