A school record 39-yard field goal by Willy Schwartz '82 midway through the fourth quarter led the MIT football club to an upset win over previously unbeaten Fairfield University Saturday at Steinbrenner Stadium. Fairfield is now 3-1 on the season.

Schwartz connected on the three-pointer to give MIT a 10-7 lead after a 10-play series brought the Engineers' 17-7 win, sewed up the team's record to 2-1. A school record 39-yard field goal by Willy Schwartz '82 midway through the fourth quarter led the MIT football club to an upset win over previously unbeaten Fairfield University Saturday at Steinbrenner Stadium. Fairfield is now 3-1 on the season.

The game was scoreless through the first quarter, but Fairfield struck first with a 48-yard touchdown pass down the left sideline to go ahead 7-0 with 10:38 left in the first half. On the ensuing series, a 46-yard run by Fred Allen '83 for a touchdown was called back because of a clipping penalty on MIT. MIT then missed another scoring opportunity when, on a fourth down play with one foot to go, quarterback Rury Jordan '83 fumbled the ball away to Fairfield. MIT then intercepted a Fairfield pass and started an 18-yard, eight-play scoring drive culminating in a one-yard carry by Allen to tie the score at 7-7 with 42 seconds left in the half. A quick Fairfield surge after the kickoff ended with an MIT interception by Jon Opalski '84 in the end zone to leave the halftime score tied. The game was marked by strong defense by MIT, repeated.
