The Massachusetts Environmental Education Society will hold its annual fall conference on Tues., Dec. 9, at the Charlestown Navy Yard from 9am-4pm. The conference, entitled "Strategies, Resources, and Case Studies: A Forum for Environmental Education," will include a variety of workshops in the areas of program planning, interagency collaboration, community action, fundraising, public relations, and career development. Jerry Bertrand, President of Massachusetts Audubon Society, will be the keynote speaker. All interested persons are invited to attend. For more information, contact David Stokes at 696-0920.

The Book Sale will be held on Dec. 10-11 from 10am to 4pm in the Library Conference Room, 14-6015. Be sure to stop in at the sale more than once as prices will be further reduced for clearance toward the end of the sale. All safe items are surplus library materials and proceeds from the sale are applied to the library materials replacement fund.

On Thurs., Dec. 11, in the Cheney Room (3-310) there will be letter writing to encourage women to accept admission to MIT. Any person or group interested in attending should write or call for further information: National Women's Law Center, 1010 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. The deadline for sending letters is Dec. 30.
