Frosh key to turnaround

By Eric Brandt

Many of the MIT athletic teams have shown improvement this year, with wrestling being a notable example. After a disappointing 3-13 season, things turned around to a winning record. Coach Walsh started saying, "He's typical of Pennsylvania wrestlers, always in good position." Shull is deceivingly quick as evidenced by his team high of five pins. In high school Ken was sectional champ and obviously lived up to the title this year. Walsh characterized Shull's wrestling as very courageous and having very fluid moves executed with authority. Ken started the season at 142 and later moved down to 134 for the good of the team. One team member said, "he doesn't look quick or strong, but he always knows what to do at the right time." Perhaps the most important aspect of this athlete is that he's a "team man." This year there was a great contribution from the freshmen. There were five first-year starters, who include: Bob Pokelwaldt (177), Mike Tiller (142) 6-5 from 2-7, and co-captain Al Russell (162) 6-3 and a Northern New England finalist from 8-8 last year; and co-captain Bob Crosier, the team's only senior, (150) 7-3 (including a Northern New England title) from 4-8. All will return except Crosier. Other significant contributors were: Steve Leibiger, co-second in Northern New England and sixth in New England; Brian Jacob, Tom Fawcetti, and Charlie Parker. MIT was next to last in the Northern New Englands in 1980, but finished third this year. 1981 was an outstanding season, with the only disappointing point being the lack of support from the MIT community.

The women's club track team has begun practices from 4 to 6pm daily in the Athletic Center. All interested women are invited to join the team. For further information, contact Laura Dugan at d9888.

The women's club hockey team will play its first game of the year holding a squad from Harvard. Game time is at 5:30pm, Thursday March 12 in the Athletic Center.

You told her you have your own place.
Now you have to tell your roommates.

You've been trying to get to know her better since the beginning of the term. And when she mentioned how much she'd like to study with you, you thought, "My place is nice and quiet. Come on over and study with me." Your roommates weren't very happy about it. But after a little persuasion they decided the double room was just the thing for the two of you. They're pretty special friends. And they deserve a special "Thanks." So, tonight, let it be Löwenbräu.
