Sports update

Baseball — Defeated northern part of schedule Thursday against Boston College, plays Bowdoin strongest two one and tied 14-4; U 144 and 1 Paul Diam softball — Record 0-4 following loss to Harvard Wednesday... Take on Brown Saturday... Young group in 21, with only one senior, five freshmen... Youth showed Wednesday, as team looked better at times... Good performances turned in by Cindy Strong 82 in left, Lu Anderson 84 in center (three hits)... Schedule a tough one for 1.M.

Outdoor Track — Looks to be out of New England's best... Quality athletes in many events... Most of indoor people to compete outdoor in spring...

The Karl Taylor Compton Awards are the highest awards given to students by the Institute community and reflect the belief that real achievement and devotion to the welfare of the MIT community in any area, with emphasis on lasting or sustained contributions to the MIT community as a whole, should be recognized.

Send nominations to the Awards Committee, Room W20-345.

IRWIN SIZER AWARD

Nomination is being sought for the IRWIN SIZER AWARD, established by the Graduate Student Council in 1975 to honor Irwin Sizer, former Dean of the Graduate School from 1967 to 1975, presently President of the Health Science Fund and Consultant to the Resource Development Office. The Award is presented for "the most significant improvement to MIT education," to encourage innovation and excellence in MIT academic programs. The recipient of this Award, selected by a committee of the Graduate Student Council in closed session, will receive a certificate and a cash award of $100. Any person or group in the Institute community is eligible, though in any year the Award Committee may decide to give no award.

Nominations may be made by letter, should include references and/or supporting material, and be submitted to Linda Louch, Walker Building, Room 50-222, no later than April 17, 1981.

Previous Awards have been given to the leaders of the Writing Program (1975), Independent Activities Program (1976), Undergraduate Research Opportunities Program (1977), the In-Forum editor at Sloan (1978), Office of Minority Education (1979), and the IUII Minority Intern Program (1980).
