General Assembly Meeting

President Gray will host the General Assembly meeting this Thursday, April 16, at 8pm at the President’s House. The agenda includes the approval of the Everett Moore Baker Foundation Board Members, the officers of the Finance Board, the UA Senate, the Finance Board, and the UA Budget as recommended by the Finance Board. Also included is a resolution concerning the human rights of individuals at MIT.

Big Screw Contest

The Big Screw is a twenty-four inch left-handed aluminum screw voted by students and awarded to the faculty member or staff thought most deserving of such honor. Votes (money) will be collected in Lobby 10 on April 14-17 and 21-25, and the person who has amassed the most money wins the rotating trophy. All proceeds go to the charity of the winner’s choice, so vote now. Contest ends Saturday, April 25 at 4pm to help contact the winner and arrange the Spring Weekend Planners.

Open Seats On Finance Board

The Finance Board of the Undergraduate Association is looking for candidates to fill two seats. The Board is the treasury of the UA; it appropriates funds to ASA-recognized and other activities and offers financial and managerial advice to organizations. If you are interested in a responsible and challenging position, please pick up an application in the Finance Board office (W20-405) by April 25 and return it to the office by April 22. Interviews for the seats will be held on April 22 at 7:15pm in Private Dining Room 82.
