New talks sought in 38-day old miners' strike

Allies agree on now plan for Namibia

Hurricane picker dies — Bobby Sands, the convicted Irish Catholic nationalist and recently-elected member of the British Parliament, died last night in Maze Prison near Belfast after a 27-day come and 65-day hunger strike. Sands, 27, was a member of the outlawed Provisional Irish Republican Army serving 14 years for a weapons charge who began his hunger strike to press for political-prisoner status. It is expected that his death will spark violent riots between Northern Irish Roman Catholics and Protestants.

Nation

Reagan nominee assailed on the Hill — The Senate, 27-5, voted to send the White House's choice for national security affairs chief Barry Goldwater to the Senate next week for a two-month period of hearings in which he may be questioned. The Senate's maneuver willkeep Ronald Reagan's man from consideration as assistant secretary of state.

Weather

Generally cloudy until Thursday, although perhaps there will be some periods of sun today. Cool northwesterly winds will keep temperatures in the upper 50's or low 60's, higher where the sun peaks through. Lows in the 40's tonight and Wednesday night. There will be occasional rain through the period, becoming most likely tomorrow. Highs Wednesday in the middle 60's. Chance of rain 40 percent today, 10 percent tomorrow.
