To the Editor:

The election of a Homecoming Queen is a beauty contest, as many people at MIT seem to think. Rather, it is an attempt at cultivating a serious school spirit in the student body of MIT. The fact that the Homecoming Queen need be a woman is not as important as the fact that the queen must not be a man. When we elect the UMOGC as Homecoming Queen, we turn any maturity the event might have produced into a joke. It is not the football team's job to win; it's the fans' job to win. If its so-called fans can't take its roles as support of the school spirit seriously.

Moreover, if we refuse to elect a queen, we merely avoid the problem of the mold of the typical American college. Campus traditions are an integral part of the whole. Homecoming Queen is not a beauty contest, as many people at MIT seem to think. Rather, it is an attempt at cultivating a serious school spirit in the student body of MIT. The fact that the Homecoming Queen need be a woman is not as important as the fact that the queen must not be a man. When we elect the UMOGC as Homecoming Queen, we turn any maturity the event might have produced into a joke. It is not the football team's job to win; it's the fans' job to win. If its so-called fans can't take its roles as support of the school spirit seriously.

Moreover, if we refuse to elect a queen, we merely avoid the problem of the mold of the typical American college. Campus traditions are an integral part of the whole. Homecoming Queen is not a beauty contest, as many people at MIT seem to think. Rather, it is an attempt at cultivating a serious school spirit in the student body of MIT. The fact that the Homecoming Queen need be a woman is not as important as the fact that the queen must not be a man. When we elect the UMOGC as Homecoming Queen, we turn any maturity the event might have produced into a joke. It is not the football team's job to win; it's the fans' job to win. If its so-called fans can't take its roles as support of the school spirit seriously.

Moreover, if we refuse to elect a queen, we merely avoid the problem of the mold of the typical American college. Campus traditions are an integral part of the whole. Homecoming Queen is not a beauty contest, as many people at MIT seem to think. Rather, it is an attempt at cultivating a serious school spirit in the student body of MIT. The fact that the Homecoming Queen need be a woman is not as important as the fact that the queen must not be a man. When we elect the UMOGC as Homecoming Queen, we turn any maturity the event might have produced into a joke. It is not the football team's job to win; it's the fans' job to win. If its so-called fans can't take its roles as support of the school spirit seriously.

Moreover, if we refuse to elect a queen, we merely avoid the problem of the mold of the typical American college. Campus traditions are an integral part of the whole. Homecoming Queen is not a beauty contest, as many people at MIT seem to think. Rather, it is an attempt at cultivating a serious school spirit in the student body of MIT. The fact that the Homecoming Queen need be a woman is not as important as the fact that the queen must not be a man. When we elect the UMOGC as Homecoming Queen, we turn any maturity the event might have produced into a joke. It is not the football team's job to win; it's the fans' job to win. If its so-called fans can't take its roles as support of the school spirit seriously.

Moreover, if we refuse to elect a queen, we merely avoid the problem of the mold of the typical American college. Campus traditions are an integral part of the whole. Homecoming Queen is not a beauty contest, as many people at MIT seem to think. Rather, it is an attempt at cultivating a serious school spirit in the student body of MIT. The fact that the Homecoming Queen need be a woman is not as important as the fact that the queen must not be a man. When we elect the UMOGC as Homecoming Queen, we turn any maturity the event might have produced into a joke. It is not the football team's job to win; it's the fans' job to win. If its so-called fans can't take its roles as support of the school spirit seriously.

Moreover, if we refuse to elect a queen, we merely avoid the problem of the mold of the typical American college. Campus traditions are an integral part of the whole. Homecoming Queen is not a beauty contest, as many people at MIT seem to think. Rather, it is an attempt at cultivating a serious school spirit in the student body of MIT. The fact that the Homecoming Queen need be a woman is not as important as the fact that the queen must not be a man. When we elect the UMOGC as Homecoming Queen, we turn any maturity the event might have produced into a joke. It is not the football team's job to win; it's the fans' job to win. If its so-called fans can't take its roles as support of the school spirit seriously.

Moreover, if we refuse to elect a queen, we merely avoid the problem of the mold of the typical American college. Campus traditions are an integral part of the whole. Homecoming Queen is not a beauty contest, as many people at MIT seem to think. Rather, it is an attempt at cultivating a serious school spirit in the student body of MIT. The fact that the Homecoming Queen need be a woman is not as important as the fact that the queen must not be a man. When we elect the UMOGC as Homecoming Queen, we turn any maturity the event might have produced into a joke. It is not the football team's job to win; it's the fans' job to win. If its so-called fans can't take its roles as support of the school spirit seriously.

Moreover, if we refuse to elect a queen, we merely avoid the problem of the mold of the typical American college. Campus traditions are an integral part of the whole. Homecoming Queen is not a beauty contest, as many people at MIT seem to think. Rather, it is an attempt at cultivating a serious school spirit in the student body of MIT. The fact that the Homecoming Queen need be a woman is not as important as the fact that the queen must not be a man. When we elect the UMOGC as Homecoming Queen, we turn any maturity the event might have produced into a joke. It is not the football team's job to win; it's the fans' job to win. If its so-called fans can't take its roles as support of the school spirit seriously.

Moreover, if we refuse to elect a queen, we merely avoid the problem of the mold of the typical American college. Campus traditions are an integral part of the whole. Homecoming Queen is not a beauty contest, as many people at MIT seem to think. Rather, it is an attempt at cultivating a serious school spirit in the student body of MIT. The fact that the Homecoming Queen need be a woman is not as important as the fact that the queen must not be a man. When we elect the UMOGC as Homecoming Queen, we turn any maturity the event might have produced into a joke. It is not the football team's job to win; it's the fans' job to win. If its so-called fans can't take its roles as support of the school spirit seriously.