Improving hockey

team splits pair

By Eric R. Fleming

Showing notable improvement in the season draws to a close, the MIT women’s field hockey team split a pair of games Thursday and Saturday.

The Engineers broke their losing streak by disposing of Brandeis, 4-2. Framingham State invaded Steinbrenner Stadium Saturday, and though Jackie Claus’s group outplayed the visiting Rams, MIT suffered a 3-1 setback.

Cindy Farmer ’84 put the home team up early, clicking on a rebound to the right of the goal at 7:30 of the first half. Framingham, however, struck back quickly and frequently, as a defensive lapse by MIT resulted in three Ram goals at the midpoint of the first half.

True to the shifting nature of the game, MIT took charge at this point. Tech forced a rare penalty Cross Country — This past Saturday, the men’s team competed in a three team meet against Williams College and Tufts U. The harriers ran a strong race, and won with a score of 26 points. Williams finished second with 43 points, and Tufts finished last in the Victorian Urn. The Urn was won by the host Williams College and Tufts U. participated in a three team meet against MIT on Saturday, the men’s team competed against BU. The result was a 3-1 loss in a game that was played on Albany Street. The men’s team finished in sixth place.

MIT Classic Road Race — As part of the Homecoming festivities, a 3.5 mile road race was held at MIT. The course was a circuit of the MIT campus, though race officials had to lengthen the course to approximately 4 miles due to a chemical spill on Albany Street. The men’s winner was Arne Nestegard, who ran the lengthened course in 20 minutes and 39 seconds. The women’s winner was Anne Cluets and 39 seconds. The rain the lengthened course in 20

CSC didn’t get to be the world’s leading information services company by ignoring talent. If you’ve got what it takes and want to take it as far as it will go, talk to us. A CSC recruiter will be on campus to answer your questions November 10th.

The only limitations are the ones you bring with you.

Vote the CCA and Tenant Slates

David Sullivan

Two years ago, David Sullivan was elected as the only tenant to the City Council. He has led the fight to strengthen rent control and stop condominium conversions. Without rent control, rents would skyrocket and tenants would face arbitrary evictions.

David Sullivan has fought for tenant protection and won. That is why real estate speculators want him out. That is why we need him on the City Council.
