

Great Escapes GO FOR IT!

by Z. Barry

Now, MIT is not exactly the most preppy place in Boston. So, following will be a list of more appropriate places relatively close to campus, many of which happen to be George Bush's favorites.

Club Casablanca (40 Brattle Street, Cambridge, 876-0994) — Casa B's is, perhaps, the key place for heavy G&T action. Not the place for P.D.A., but if she leaves with you, you'll at least get to swap spit.

Charles River Yacht Club (Building E50, 354-8681) — Although the location is T.T.F.W., the C.R.Y.C. is the greatest spot to start an apres dejeuner cruise of the Crimson Shores. Also a convenient term-time home for the 69-footer you keep at Edgartown.

Oxford Ale House (36 Church Street, Cambridge, 876-5353) — Caroline Kennedy's fave, the House has brewskis from around the world — without the Wursthau's proletarian atmosphere.

Cricket's (101 Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston, 227-3434) — Newest hangout for older preps. Martinis said to be the best in Boston. Cricket's is definitely shoe city. Great place to meet "old boys" if you need a summer job in New Haven.

Friday's (26 Exeter Street, Boston, 266-9040) — The atmosphere is just like home — crew-shells made into hanging planters, menus in spiral-bound composition books, and turtle-necks with whales. Parallel parking inside and out.

Elsie's Lunch (71a Mount Auburn Street, Cambridge, 354-8362) — J.F.K. loved their roast beef sandwiches when he was editor of the Crime. Open 'til 3am, if you've been getting low. Need we say more?

Quaffer's (84 Beacon Street, Boston, unlisted) — Private club, but they won't check if your fag tag's in the right place. Major St. Grotlex crowd here — you won't have to worry that he's N.O.C.D. B<sup>2</sup> city.

Spit (13 Lansdowne Street, Boston, 262-2424) — Strictly speaking, it's NOT PREP, but it is off the wall; a wild change from the same old thing. Many here without both oars in the water. If you enjoy it too much, you're F.T.P.

Father's Five (Mass. Ave. and Marlborough St., Boston, pay phone in the back) — A dive? Yes. In a dirty basement? Yes. In a seedy part of town? Yes. Why then? Puffanie Frolick, editor of the Commie rag, The Daily Reamer, saw Ted Kennedy here, that's why.

Jonathan Swift's Pub (306 John F. Kennedy (nee Boylston) Street, Cambridge, 661-9887) — Watch for preppy night every two weeks or so. Cheap drinks, cheap entertainment, cheap atmosphere — the perfect excuse to leave early and play hide-the-salam.

Harvard Club of Boston (374 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, 536-1260) — The place to take your new talent for Dom P. — when Daddy's buying. If you're not a member, why are you reading this?

PRECISE

Wants YOU to be on the WINNING TEAM!

Vice President George Bush has talked of the United States emerging as "a winner" in a nuclear exchange.

We at PRECISE have that winning attitude.

Thinking strategically led us to our position as the acknowledged leader in aerospace systems, optics, communications, and guidance technology. You too can contribute to these challenging, explosively expanding fields when you join our elite engineering community.

Work on projects including the cruise missile (pictured above), Stealth bomber, High Energy Lithium Laser, and AAABM's. Be an innovator who'll change the face of the world.

Enjoy an excellent benefits package featuring company-paid medical (including full cancer and burn coverage), dental and life insurance, 13 paid vacation days, and a tuition reimbursement plan. Our Recreation Club sponsors activities like fencing, archery, pistol, karate, and camping.

We are looking for the following majors:

- § Aerospace Engineers (BS/MS)
- § Mechanical Engineers (BS)
- § Computer Scientists (BS/MS)
- § Management Systems (BS/MBA)
- § Electrical Engineers (BS/MS)
- § Physicists (BS/MS/Phd)

OPEN HOUSE

with Engineers and Technical Managers

November 4

8:00 pm - 10:00 pm
9-150

Refreshments will be served.

INTERVIEWS

November 5

10:00 am - 3:00 pm

Contact

Career Planning and Placement

for Details

PRECISE

1 Technology Lane
Santa Cruz, CA 90666

DOD Clearance and US Citizenship required!

PRECISE is an employer. WM only.