Announcements

February degree candidates will be mailed notices requesting they schedule appointments for Exit Interviews with the Student Loan Office. These interviews are mandated by the US Department of Education and are requested by the Institute to maintain good standing on the degree list. The notice also serves to accelerate the repayment status and terms of the loans. Contact the Student Loan Office in E10-225, x3-4827, for any questions.

The Bursar's Office - Student Accounts has extended the hours at the "half door" at E10-215. The office will be open Monday through Friday, from 9:00am to 4:15pm to accept payments, disburse refunds checks, answer general questions, issue Direct Loans, and make appointments with Account Representatives. Account Representatives will continue to be available to meet with students between 4pm and 4pm. The extended hours will not be in effect for the first two weeks of the fall and spring terms.

The 1. Austin Kelly III Competition in humanistic scholarship is now receiving entries. Two prizes of $250 will be awarded for the best scholarly or critical papers in Literary Studies, History, Musicology, Anthropology, or Archeology. All full-time MIT undergraduates are eligible, except previous winners. Submissions must be at least 4000 words long (14 standard typewritten pages). Papers may be written expressly for the contest, or papers from classes may be submitted, either as they stand, or in revised or expanded form. Submission deadline is April 30, 1982; rules and guidelines are available in X4N-305. The competition is administered by the Course X11 Office of the Department of Humanities.

During IAP the Civil Engineering Department will be conducting a competition for undergraduates (particularly freshmen) who would like to join faculty members in research opportunities. Up to ten $500 traineeships will be awarded to support this involvement. Participants will be awarded on the basis of a proposal written by the student in cooperation with a faculty member. To aid in linking students with potential research, an extensive directory of activities will be sent out to all freshmen and sophomores along with an announcement of the competition. Deadline for the submission of proposals is the end of the January IAP period. Students desiring more help in definition or in meeting faculty can attend a January IAP course (see the Bulletin) or contact Professor David Marks, Undergraduate Officer, x3-1637. Numerous topics ranging from earthquake engineering to the rebuilding of America's infrastructure are presented.

The Massachusetts Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators' tolfree financial aid hotline will be in service from 8am to 9pm, weekdays, now through January 30. Call 1-800-952-1001 with questions on financial aid programs and eligibility. The hotline will be closed on Martin Luther King Day, January 15.

The Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs (MSFWC) is sponsoring an annual scholarship program for graduate study in the fields of business and dentistry. Applicants must maintain official residence in Massachusetts for at least five years to be considered and obtain a letter of endorsement from a local MSFWC club president. Two scholarships in the amount of $2,000 are being offered. For further information and applications contact Associate Dean Jeanne Richard, 3-136, x3-4809. Deadline for applications is March 1, 1982.

Reneeke Memorial Scholarship Program: For college juniors who have demonstrated an unusual ability in a field of study they intend to pursue at the graduate level. Preference to students in the arts and sciences with an eventual goal of college teaching. Candidates must have demonstrated financial need and only one nomination can be made from MIT. For further information and applications contact Associate Dean Richard, Graduate School Office, 3-136, extension 3-4809. Nomination deadline February 1, 1982.

Lectures

New York Times columnist Anthony Lewis will be questioned about US foreign policy by an international panel of journalists at the Cambridge Forum tonight at 8pm at 3 Church Street, Harvard Square. Admission is free.

Internships

Finance and Management Internship - United States Steel Company, Boston, MA. Internship runs from January to June, 6 - 15 hours per week. Interns will be assigned to a project area in the company's finance and accounting department. The internship is designed to provide an understanding of the financial aspects of a major business. It is open to undergraduate and graduate students. Interested students should contact the Office of Career Services, 32-108, x3-2622.

Luisa Greiner
BOOZ-ALLEN & HAMILTON
245 Park Avenue
New York, New York 10016

BOOZ-ALLEN & HAMILTON INC.

We are an equal opportunity employer M/F.